Clocks Advance All Over B.C.

Daylight Saving Starts July 7

Clocks will be advanced an hour in British Columbia starting July 7 when daylight saving will be proclaimed on a province-wide basis by the provincial government.

Premier Pattullo announced today on his return from a trip up-country that the necessary order under the Daylight Saving Act will be passed.

He said July 7 had been fixed mainly to give sufficient notice so that the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation would be able to rearrange its British Columbia schedules. (Unofficial sources had previously suggested the clock advance might take place July 1.)

The change over, presumably, will take place at midnight July 6. Text of the provincial order has not yet been drafted.

The Premier said, a specific period of months had not been fixed yet for duration of daylight saving. It may be brought in on an indefinite basis, subject to being revoked when it is no longer thought necessary.

Provincial action on the issue followed some weeks of discussion on the question in Victoria and Vancouver, culminated when H. R. MacMillan, head of War-time Shipbuilding Limited, urged that daylight saving be instituted in areas where war shipbuilding jobs are in progress so that an extra daylight working hour would be provided.

The Premier commented that there had been a generally favorable reaction to the proposal throughout the province.

The government's decision ended a period of uncertainty as to who had and who had not the authority to proclaim daylight saving. Vancouver discovered it had no direct authority in its charter. Victoria officials said their private act allowed it, but all other municipalities had no authority under the Municipal Act, provincial legal officials said.

Soviet Tanks Beating Nazis in Poland

LONDON (CP)—The Soviet information bureau reported in a broadcast tonight a gigantic tank battle was raging in Poland, with the Germans getting the worst of it at the hands of the Red Army. "During the day of June 26," said the announcer, "our troops were in fierce combat with large enemy tank units. Fighting is in progress."

Claim Lwow

LONDON (CP)—Reuter's news agency tonight quoted roundabout, unconfirmed reports that the Germans had occupied Lwow, in Russian Poland. Reuter's said this report reached Vichy in a dispatch from Budapest, quoting Hungarian war correspondents.

B.C. Flier Injured

KAMLOOPS (CP)—Squadron Leader Jack Fulton, D.F.C., Royal Air Force, has been injured in an aircraft accident in England, according to a cablegram received today by his mother, Mrs. F. J. Fulton. He won his decoration by devotion to duty in bombing raids on Germany last year. Recently he had been engaged in test piloting and experimental work. He is a grandson of the late Premier Alexander Davie of British Columbia.

British Tories Cool To Russian Toast

LONDON (AP)—When Lord Nathan, at a national defence luncheon yesterday, after a toast to the King, proposed a toast to "the success of the Russian armies," many of the guests remained seated.

Ivan Maisky, Russian ambassador, replied, thanking the assemblage for "the way the toast was received."

Some of the guests thought they detected irony in the ambassador's remark, for the audience, made up largely of Conservatives and soldiers, had been unenthusiastic in receiving the toast, many not bothering to rise from their chairs.

Russians Beat Off Nazis in South, Lose Ground Only Near Vilna

Canadian and Associated Press

The Germans have made no great forward movement against Soviet Russia within the past 24 hours except for the drive in the vicinity of Vilna, Lithuania, according to information which reached military circles in Vichy tonight.

These reports said there had been slight German gains on the southern Polish front in the region of Brody, but that farther south, in the Cernauti area and along the Prut River line, the Nazis have been blocked.

Enemy Operates In 2 Movements

The advices indicated the Germans were pushing at two widespread points in order to cut a pocket of some 10,000 square miles into Russia on the direct road to Moscow.

A northern column was pushing from Bialystok, on the Polish demarcation line, toward Vilna, while the southern arm of this particular operation was directed from Brest-Litovsk, also near the demarcation line, toward Baranowicz.

The Vilna column was said to be making considerable progress, apparently distancing the one moving northeast from Brest-Litovsk along the main road to the Russian capital.

The two columns were operating about 100 miles apart, with the Russians still holding positions 100 miles in front of the Vilna-Baranowicz line.

Front Reformed In Lithuania

Russian military dispatches by way of Moscow stated that masses of Soviet troops, thrown into the line after German panzer units had broken through in the drive on Vilna in Lithuania, reformed the front and checked the Nazi advance.

They reported Soviet troops holding tight also at other points along the 1,000-mile battlefront and said Przemyśl, on the border of German-occupied Poland, had been recaptured in a Russian counterattack.

German Claims Less Than Predicted

The German high command claimed today that "successes of great dimensions" are beginning to show in the invasion of Russia.

The communiqué, again issued "from the Fuehrer's headquarters," declared this was the result of decisions in the German favor "in numerous border battles."

Operations on the land and in the air again "continued on schedule yesterday," it reported.

The enemy communiqué devoted only two brief sentences which gave no details about the eastern front.

Nazi sources earlier had claimed that after four days of fierce fighting the whole "Red front" had been shattered and the Soviet Russian army proved no match for Germany's armed forces.

There had been predictions in Berlin, apparently on high authority, that details of successes which would "baffle the imagination" would be released today and it had been indicated they would appear in the communiqué. Today's war bulletin, incidentally, was about two hours later than usual.

Soviet air raiders kept up devastating raids on Finland today, inflicting destruction over a wide area of the country.

Heaviest hit, apparently, was

the Gulf of Bothnia port of Turku, in southwest Finland, which was raided 10 times last night alone. Many were killed and wounded there and damage was heavy, the government said. Helsinki had its sixth air raid alarm in a little more than 24 hours this morning.

The naval guns on Hango Peninsula, which the Russians obtained from Finland in the peace settlement little more than a year ago, also went into action, bombing adjacent Finnish territory at intervals for hours.

In London Soviet chances of holding the German invaders away from Leningrad were viewed with some optimism, providing the Red Army withdraws to the fortified positions on the Dvina River, on which the Imperial army field in the last war. The river runs through Vitebsk and Polotsk into Latvia.

On the Lithuanian front, where the Nazis are attempting one of their main pushes, the advance was held by massing large numbers of new troops in the Germans' path, Russian army leaders said.

Reichswehr Infantry failed completely in efforts to follow their tanks through temporary gaps cut by the panzer shock vehicles, Russians asserted. They did not disclose the fate of the tanks that had broken through, other than to say they had been "cut off."

Russian Fliers Sweeping Finland

The press published accounts of a fight along the banks of a river in the Ukraine where, it said, peasants joined 40 frontier guards to hold off attacking Germans for two hours until regular troops arrived.

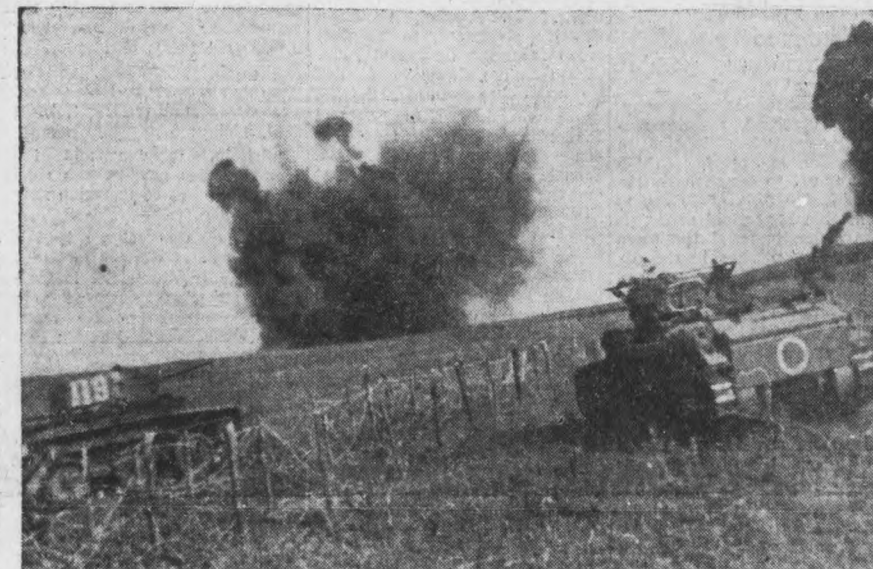

Nazi efforts to pierce Russian defences in the Brody and Lwow sectors in the centre of the battlefront also "were encountering strong resistance on the part of counter-attacking Russian troops, supported by the powerful blows of our air force," a Moscow communiqué said.

One swift counter-attack, the high command said, resulted in recapture of Przemyśl, a border town 50 miles west of Lwow.

Farther south, repeated German-Rumanian attempts to force

Germans Lose 161 Planes In 11 Days

R.A.F. Day Raiders Bag 9 Nazis

LONDON (CP)—The Royal Air Force destroyed nine more German fighter planes over the Channel and northern France today when it returned for another shattering raid to reinforce its mastery of the daylight skies in that area. Three British fighters were missing.

An authorized source declared losses in the air battle on the western front June 15 to 25, inclusive, were 161 German planes against 66 British.

Only a few hours after the R.A.F. had wound up the greatest 24-hour offensive it has yet attempted—a continuous assault in which 400 to 500 planes were said to have participated—the roar of aircraft could be heard along the south coast today as planes raced across the Channel to hammer Nazi-occupied territories again.

Yesterday's great raid culminated in another smashing air attack on western Germany. The short summer nights were said to be forcing the R.A.F. to concentrate on western Germany, but when the nights lengthen they expect to reach out to the virtually untouched eastern section.

Bremen and Kiel, Nazi naval bases, were the main objectives last night.

The overnight attack on Germany was the 15th in as many nights, and the British Broadcasting Corporation said the R.A.F. is just hitting its stride.

An informed source, in noting the ever-increasing offensive, said that in the 24 hours ended at dusk Wednesday the R.A.F. sent more planes against Germany and Nazi-occupied territory than during any similar period since start of the war. These operations were said to have at least equalled heavy Nazi raids on Britain last fall.

The Air Ministry said that during Wednesday morning and afternoon raids on the French coast 13 Nazi planes were shot down, bringing the total along the coast and over western Germany to 134 in 10 days.

The Air Ministry announced that in the blasting of Kiel and Bremen last night many large fires were started. Docks at Boulogne on the French coast also were bombed. One British plane is missing.

So far the Prime Minister has made no public appearances. He has taken advantage of several opportunities to exercise on station platforms and to meet a few people who cluster around his car at the stops.

Nanaimo Camp Plans Big Days

People throughout British Columbia have become accustomed in recent months to seeing troops on the march, but to most the daily life and training of the army has been a closed book, except for brief glimpses in newsreels.

On Saturday, the book will be opened wide, not only in various military establishments around Victoria, but at the military camp at Nanaimo and other centres throughout Canada.

Saturday has been designated "Army Day," and from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. the public has been invited to inspect Bay Street Armouries, the Officers' Training Centre at Gordon Head, Parsons Bridge camp at Colwood, Signal Centre at Work Point and the military camp at Nanaimo.

The open day at Nanaimo camp will permit the public to see the training, recreational activities and daily life of men in khaki. The following day has been declared a national day of prayer, and the camp will be opened to the public again on Sunday morning for a drumhead open-air church parade of all active force units quartered there.

VICTORIANS INVITED

Brigadier O. M. Martin, commanding the 13th Infantry Brigade, has extended an invitation to the people of the island to visit the camp on these occasions, and particularly to the people of Victoria to see their own active force unit, 2nd Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment, in its tent camp following its recent tour march from Colwood.

Taking part in Saturday's program will be the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders of Canada (Princess Louise), the Lincoln and Welland Regiment and the Dufferin and Haldimand Rifles, forming the 13th Infantry Brigade, and the 2nd Battalion Scottish.

Reserve force displays will be put on at Nanaimo by the 2nd Battalion, Irish Fusiliers; the 2nd Battalion, Westminster Regiment, and the 13th Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C.

Visitors to the camp will see active force units in regular training activities, and will be able to witness in action two Bren gun carriers recently added to the mechanized equipment of the 2nd Battalion, Canadian Scottish. The public will be allowed to picnic on the camp grounds at noon.

Armored Brigade 'Occupies' Toronto

TORONTO (CP)—In one of the most dramatic manoeuvres yet staged by Canadian armed forces, mobile columns raced 60 miles southwards from Camp Borden today to take possession swiftly of strategic points in the city of Toronto. The coup was designed to forestall a theoretical attack by fifth columnists on the city late tonight.

More than 2,000 trained and equipped men of the Canadian armored brigade entered the city in long columns by four different routes, down Dufferin Street, Bathurst Street, Avenue Road and Bay Street, and within half an hour had established control over vital points such as reservoirs and waterworks, hydro-electric stations and radio stations.

The offices of Premier Hepburn at Queen's Park were taken over as the military occupied the provincial legislative buildings.

Other units took possession of Mayor Fred Conboy's office and the city hall.

The fast motorized attack in which several well-known regiments took part with full equipment, including gun carriers, took the city completely by surprise. Civic officials and the police department had no warning.

The 1st Canadian Armored Division commanded by Maj.-Gen. Sansom had been chosen to carry out the move. The division includes the ex-Dragoons of Kelowna, Vernon and Penikese, B.C.

The War Today

By DON GILBERT

Russo-German war has made it necessary for Britain to review her relations with European countries still nominally neutral, also brought Japan's place in the situation under examination in Tokyo and Washington.

London disclosed today the question of Sweden's neutrality is being considered by the British government in the light of an announcement permission has been granted for a division of German troops to cross Sweden by train from Norway to Finland.

Sweden has maintained a precarious neutrality since early months of war. First the Finnish-Russian outbreak brought hostilities close to her borders and requests were made by Britain and France for transit facilities for an allied expeditionary force to help Finland. These requests were refused. Then Germany occupied Norway, Sweden's western neighbor, and Denmark. Russia occupied the Baltic states, and Sweden's encirclement by unfriendly powers was complete except for Finland.

Japanese Cabinet Wavers On Moves Toward Russia

TOKYO (AP)—Since United States aid to Soviet Russia will be directed against the Axis, Japan cannot "take it lightly," the influential Tokyo newspaper Asahi said today (Friday).

Such help, however, will be "largely abstract" because of geographical and other factors, Asahi said, adding:

"Britain, Russian and the United States now have a common enemy, so co-operation may be expected."

The Japanese cabinet held a series of extraordinary meetings Thursday to study the international situation as it relates to Japan, particularly with reference to the German-Russian conflict.

There still was no indication whether Japan would make a choice between the Reich and the Soviet or remain neutral. She has an alliance with Germany and a neutrality pact with Russia.

Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka was received by Emperor Hirohito to report on the new war in Europe.

Domei, Japanese news agency, reported from Moscow that 22 members of the Japanese colony there, including the wife of Ambassador General Yoshitsugu Tatekawa, were preparing to leave for home tonight via Siberia. The party includes nine women, six children and seven men.

Remaining members of the embassy staff were said to have "divided into three groups preparatory for any eventuality."

ITALIANS WORRIED

Mario Indelli, Italian ambassador to Japan, called at the foreign office to ask for help in the removal of members of the Italian embassy in Moscow. He also gave an explanation of Italy's declaration of war on Russia.

The press continued to express anxiety over the prospect of

But Finland, when Russo-Finnish peace was restored, swung toward Germany and permission was given for German troop movements through Finland ostensibly en route to Norway.

When rumors began to fly early this month concerning Russo-German tension, it suddenly became known that the Germans were firmly entrenched in eastern Finland.

What the Germans did in Finland in the way of driving in the thin edge of the wedge may be repeated in Sweden now that the initial concession has been granted. There are many ways in which Sweden, under Nazi domination, could be useful in furthering German war plans against Britain. The British government, therefore, has the matter under examination, and if it is proved that Sweden is aiding the enemy in a substantial way it is possible the country will be declared enemy-occupied territory.

Finland, of course, is as good as in the enemy camp.

Japanese Cabinet Wavers On Moves Toward Russia

United States' aid to Russia and other American moves in the Pacific.

The newspaper Yomiuri gave prominence to a Hongkong dispatch, (unconfirmed from any other source) of an allied meeting of Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, British ambassador to China, and 15 prominent Chinese in which the envoy was said to have announced conclusion of an alliance among Britain, the United States and China. The United States fleet, the envoy was quoted as saying, would help in case of trouble in the Pacific.

INVESTIGATING

Yomiuri said the Japanese government viewed this as an important development and had ordered an investigation.

Kokumin, considered an army organ, said it was obvious the United States could not "distribute its aid over the entire world." America, the paper continued, "can not supply Britain, Chiang Kai-shek (China), the Dutch East Indies, the Near East and Russia effectively although she has adopted the high-sounding title 'arsenal of democracy.'"

ITALIAN OPINION

ROME (AP)—Admiral Gino Ducei of the Italian navy today asserted Japan might join in the Axis war on Russia, occupying all of Sakhalin Island and the Soviet base at Petropavlovsk on the Kamchatka Peninsula to "prevent the United States from occupying" Siberian bases in a war against Japan, Germany and Italy.

"United States commercial aid to Russia 'may force' Japan to re-examine her defensive problem toward the west and north," Admiral Ducei wrote in Il Giornale d'Italia, the newspaper of the authoritative editor Virginia Gayda.

(Russia owns the northern half of Sakhalin Island, Japan the southern half. The island lies north of Japan off the Siberian coast.)

Nazis Tried Kite For British Aid

LONDON (CP)—Informed quarters conceded today there is "a certain amount of truth" in Ankara reports the Nazis had sought British co-operation against the Soviet Union.

They said Prime Minister Churchill's broadcast Sunday blasted German hopes of rallying rightist opinion for an anti-Bolshevik crusade.

It was suggested the Nazi misunderstanding British feelings and had believed that if once Germany appeared as the crusader some elements here and in the United States would urge peace.

These quarters said there was no direct approach from the Germans, but speculated that Franz von Papen, German ambassador to Turkey, might have passed on the suggestion to a neutral source.

Canada Could Supply Grain to Russia

REGINA (CP)—With present surplus stocks of wheat, Canada is in a position to meet any demand for grain which may be made by Russia or any other country, Hon. J. G. Gardiner, federal Minister of Agriculture, said here today.

If Canada's surplus should run low as a result of export trade this year and more wheat is needed next year, the farms of the prairie provinces will be in excellent condition to produce more, Mr. Gardiner said.

Finns Will Fight, President Says

HELSINKI (AP)—President Risto Ryti, broadcasting to the nation while Russian bombs rained down on the cities of Finland, declared tonight "We shall fight for the freedom of our country and for the creed of our fathers."

He charged Soviet Russia had repeatedly threatened the independence of Finland since their peace of March, 1940.

Ryti told his people "the Soviet government has decided on even more brutal measures against Finland than before."

Reviewing the situation created by the German war against Russia, he said "the Soviet air force has carried out aid raids on our country, killing aged people, women and children and destroying valuable property of our citizens."

He accused the Soviet government of "numerous interventions and interferences" with the internal life of Finland since peace was signed after the Russian-Finnish war.

He declared the Finns had tried to fulfill terms of the peace treaty, "but again we had to experience that there is no relying on a word given by the Soviet government."

ITALIANS WILL GO TO RUSSIAN FRONT

ROME (AP)—This Italian communique announcing dispatch of an expeditionary force to the Russian front was issued tonight:

"This morning in a city in the Po valley, Il Duce reviewed the first motorized division of an expeditionary corps chosen to be sent to the Russian front. Il Duce was accompanied by Gen. Ugo Cavallero, chief of the general staff of the armed forces, Gen. von Rintelen, chief of the German military mission in Rome, and Gen. Francisco Pricolo, chief of the air force general staff. The secretary for the Fascist party also was present for the review."

"Il Duce arrived by plane and went to the place where the troops were drawn up. The troops presented themselves in a superb manner, complete with men, arms and motor vehicles. The troops were passed before Il Duce in an impeccable manner."

"After the review Il Duce praised warmly the division's commander."

"Il Duce then visited a group of wounded soldiers and relatives of fallen soldiers gathered in a special stand."

"Il Duce thereafter walked past the line of compact files of Black-shirts while the crowd which filled the streets and windows of houses, all flag-draped, cheered him enthusiastically."

"Then Il Duce went to the airfield, where he departed, piloting his own warplane. A few hours later, he visited two military hospitals, chatting with the wounded and sick."

"At the end of the visit he praised Colonels Archangelo Lazari and Umberto Comelli, together with their staffs. Soldiers under treatment in the hospitals greeted Il Duce with great acclamations."

Russia Calm As War Starts

By HENRY CASSIDY

MOSCOW (AP)—From the Black Sea to Moscow, through regions rarely seen by foreigners recently, even in peacetime, I have watched from behind the Russian lines as the Soviet provinces went to war with Germany.

The general impression was the Soviet forces got off to a smooth start. Mobilization was carried out without any apparent hitch. The blackout was installed effectively. Trains were running promptly. Agriculture and industry appeared to be working at top pitch.

Huge Earth Shocks In North Africa

LONDON (CP)—A severe earthquake, which experts compared with some of the worst in recent years, was recorded here today and indirect reports said there had been considerable damage but few casualties in Morocco.

The quake began at 2 p.m. (4 a.m. P.S.T.) and still was registering 46 minutes later when the seismograph needle here swung two and a quarter inches.

The tremors appeared to be getting progressively more violent.

Exchange Telegraph News Agency said it heard, through German reports, that the Rabat Observatory in French Morocco had registered tremors in eastern Morocco in the vicinity of Talsint and Beni Caschid.

(Officials at the Dominion Observatory, in Ottawa said an earthquake of "intense severity" was recorded there today, with preliminary data indicating it may have occurred in Japan.)

NO EXCUSES FOR DRUNK DRIVERS

HALIFAX (CP)—Contradicting decisions handed down by the Supreme Courts of New Brunswick and Alberta, the Nova Scotia Supreme Court, presided over by Chief Justice Sir Joseph Chisholm, has ruled that a person is still in control of his car even if he is asleep or intoxicated.

Providing the trial case was a recent ruling by Magistrate R. J. Flinn of Halifax, who threw out of court a drunken driving charge on the grounds the defendant was asleep and so intoxicated he "did not have the mental capacity to commit the offence." His decision was based on similar cases dealt with by the Alberta and New Brunswick Supreme Courts.

Disputing the ruling was the Attorney-General's department. Yesterday the department argued successfully that "if a man chooses to get drunk he is answerable for the consequences," adding "there is no justification in throwing around a case... a wall of protection higher and stronger than that devised for a more serious crime."

Pope to Broadcast On Russian War

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII will deliver a broadcast Sunday in which he is expected to deal with the situation arising from the German invasion of Soviet Russia.

The Vatican thus far has maintained strict neutrality in the war, but unofficial Vatican sources had predicted the Pope would speak on the entrance of Soviet Russia into the conflict since the Vatican always has been hostile toward Communism for its atheistic manifestations.

The Vatican news service said the Pope would speak to "the entire world" in an address dealing with "considerations having to do with Divine Providence in human events."

The message, which will coincide with the feast of St. Peter and St. Paul, will be delivered at 5:30 a.m., P.S.T., on wave lengths of 31.06 and 19.84 metres.

MAY SIGN PLEDGE TO FIGHT TO END

LONDON (CP)—Reports circulated in London tonight that Soviet Russia would be asked to subscribe to an inter-allied agreement against concluding a separate peace with Germany before the end of the war.

Informed sources, however, asserted a formal British-Soviet alliance probably would be a necessary prerequisite and declared there was no indication any treaty of alliance was being considered at the moment.

"No one knows whether there eventually will be one," they added.

They conceded, however, that both Britain and the United States probably would welcome Russian assurance against a separate peace as a condition for sending material aid which might fall to the Germans if the Russians should capitulate.

Unauthorized Strike By Chicago Printers

CHICAGO (AP)—Three afternoon newspapers—the Daily Times, Daily News and Herald-American—have encountered labor difficulties in their composing rooms. The work stoppage began yesterday. Spokesmen for the newspapers said they had set up emergency arrangements which would enable them to continue publication.

A spokesman for the local Typographical Union said the stoppages were not authorized, but that some of the members "took things into their own hands" during negotiations for a new contract to replace the one which expired June 12. The men want wage increases of $5 a week over the present basic rates of $38 for day employees and $61 for men on the night shift. The International Typographical Union's executive board ordered the men to return to work or face expulsion.

Pope Decries 'Flood of Paganism'

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII called today for "self-sacrifice" to escape the flood of "paganism sweeping over peoples today" when he made a 15-minute radio speech to the closing session of the National Eucharistic Congress at St. Paul, Minn.

The Pope, speaking in English from his private library, declared the church was "persecuted in some of its members" so that it was "hard to say how far-reaching the suffering will be."

He said the current of paganism was breaking down self respect and decency, undermining Christian culture.

The Pope stressed that Christ had sacrificed His life for all mankind and the Pontiff then asked: "How can we fail to love all men for whose love Christ died on the cross?"

He concluded with an apostolic benediction on those attending the St. Paul Congress. This was in Latin.

Tobruk Garrison Gains By Thrust

CAIRO (AP)—Britain's besieged garrison at Tobruk, Libya, made strong, new gains against the Axis front "and thereby considerably strengthened our own position in this sector," the Middle East command announced today.

This sign of new British offensive strength on the western desert was coupled with gains in east Africa and what the command called progressive "disintegration" of Fascist forces in Ethiopia.

Australia Adds 6 Cabinet Posts

CANBERRA (CP)—Prime Minister R. G. Menzies announced today the Australian cabinet had been enlarged by addition of six new posts—munitions, aircraft production, transport, war organization, home security and external territories.

Changes were foreshadowed in a speech by Mr. Menzies last week.

Prime Minister and Minister of Defence—Mr. Menzies.
Treasurer—A. W. Fadden.
Attorney-General and Navy Minister—W. M. Hughes.
Army—P. S. Spender.
Supply Development and Vice-President of the Executive Council—Senator G. McLeay.
Air and Civil Aviation—John McEwen.

Interior and Information—Senator H. S. Foll.
Commerce—Sir Earle Page.
External Affairs, Health and Special Services—Sir Frederick Stewart.

Munitions—Senator P. A. M. McBride.
Customs—E. J. Harrison.
Labor and National Service—H. E. Holt.
Reparation—Senator H. B. Collett.

Postmaster-General—T. J. Collins.
Aircraft Production—Senator J. W. Leckie.
Transport—H. L. Anthony.
War Organization and Industry—E. S. Spooner.

Home Security—Senator M. Abbott.
External Territories—Allen McKenzie McDonald.

Messrs. Collett, Collins, Leckie, Anthony, Spooner, Abbott and McDonald are new members of the cabinet. All of new posts went to new members except munitions, which went to Senator McBride, formerly Minister of Supply.

Mr. Menzies relinquished information ministry to Senator Foll, interior minister, in the shuffle.

Harried and Hungry

Lost Italian Legion Wanders in Ethiopia

CAIRO (AP)—In the "bad lands" of the Danakil desert, between the Red Sea and the eastern escarpment of the Ethiopian Plateau, hunger and thirst fight Britain's battle against one of Italy's lost legions.

Amidst a wilderness of volcanic lava covering the ground like petrified foam, broken units of forces defeated by South Africans at Kombolcha, April 23, wander in the great Danakil trough, often below the level of the Red Sea, in one of the hottest areas of the world.

Harried ceaselessly by natives, they are driven from one brackish well to the next on a journey which it is believed can have no end but surrender.

A few escaped to an internment camp in French Somaliland. The rest stumble wearily on. In the Ethiopian Highlands, where the rains are turning mountain streams into torrents, odd forces of Italians still put up half-hearted resistance.

Sudanese Indians now are encircling Gondar in the north, where Gen. Nasi's troops are known to be short of food and low in morale. South of that area two pockets of Italians are surrounded.

The forces in the Gondar region are estimated at three brigades, more than half native.

Gen. Gazera is holding out amid the towering mountains of the southwest, despite the loss of 8,000 prisoners at Jimma. His force is estimated at 2,000, "the biggest remaining, but his food problem is less serious, because that region is fertile."

Far westward, near the Sudan frontier, a few Italians still resist in the Gambela area along the Baro River in a primitive part of the country.

Final Assault On Beirut

Vichy May Soon Seek Armistice in Syria

Canadian and Associated Press. Australia's official war correspondent in Syria, quoting Australian staff officers, said today it would not be surprising if the Vichy defenders of the Levant states sought an armistice within the next few days, the Australian radio said in a broadcast heard in New York by CBS.

Vichy authorities now have all their reserves in action, the correspondent stated, and have already tried their main thrust without success during counterattacks at Damascus and Merdjayoun.

Allied forces operating from captured Damascus occupied Deir Qanoun, 12 miles to the north-west, and were approaching Dimas, on the Damascus-Beirut road, a military spokesman said. Vichy forces which evacuated Merdjayoun were reported resisting at Hasbaya, 10 miles to the northeast.

NAZIS RAID DAMASCUS

A Reuters' new agency dispatch to London from Jerusalem today quoted Syrian Premier Khaled Bey Azem as saying 400 bombs fell in the thickly-populated Batouma quarter of Damascus and near the tomb of Saladin during an air raid yesterday.

An earlier dispatch said 30 persons were killed and many injured when German planes raided the Syrian capital, now held by British and Free French forces.

The attack was "sheer savagery," Reuters quoted the Syrians as saying after explaining there were no military objectives in the city.

DAMOUR SHELLED

British sources in Jerusalem said shelling of Vichy French positions around Damour by warships of the Royal Navy, and air bombing of Beirut harbor itself marked the beginning of the final phase of the allied campaign for the capture of the Lebanon capital.

Australian troops who recaptured Merdjayoun from Vichy forces were moving toward Damour and were reported less than 12 miles from Beirut itself. Vichy destroyers in the harbor of the capital were reported attacked by planes of the British Fleet's Air Arm.

In central Syria, British columns from Iraq engaged Vichy troops at a desert oasis around the Palmyra, an important air base. This thrust across the middle of Syria toward Homs threatens to cut the country in two.

Allied forces operating from captured Damascus occupied Deir Qanoun, 12 miles to the north-west, and were approaching Dimas, on the Damascus-Beirut road, a military spokesman said. Vichy forces which evacuated Merdjayoun were reported resisting at Hasbaya, 10 miles to the northeast.

Labor Inquiry Board Set Up

OTTAWA (CP)—An industrial disputes inquiry commission composed of Humphrey Mitchell of Ottawa as chairman and Gilbert Jackson of Toronto and George Hodge of Montreal as members was announced by Labor Minister McLarty.

The object of the commission will be to investigate labor disputes in their incipient stages and decide whether it is necessary to grant boards of conciliation. The minister obtained authority on June 6 to name a commission by order-in-council and since then has been working on the personnel.

In explaining his reasons for commissioning the minister said "it is of the utmost importance to deal with industrial disputes as promptly as possible."

FILLS GAP

The commission will go into operation immediately a board of conciliation has been applied for, filling in the gap until a board can be set up if one becomes necessary.

"Under the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act it takes time to apply for a board," said the minister. "It takes time for the applicants to nominate their representatives; it takes time for the representatives to agree or disagree on the appointment of a chairman; it takes time for the minister to appoint a chairman, if necessary."

MAY CHANGE

"By that time the whole character of the dispute and the circumstances surrounding it may have changed fundamentally. If we can get the commission to investigate a dispute without delay and armed with the full authority of commissioners to require the production of any evidence, there is a very good chance that we can effect a settlement before extraneous matters are brought into the dispute."

"If the commission does not succeed in effecting a settlement then it can advise the minister whether there are good grounds for the appointment of a board of conciliation and investigation."

Australia Plans To Produce Aluminum

CANBERRA (AP)—The Australian government has decided to manufacture aluminum in Australia, using local bauxite, of which there are large deposits in New South Wales, Queensland and Victoria, whenever possible.

Senator P. A. McBride, Minister of Supply, said the action would involve an initial expenditure of more than £1,500,000 (about $5,370,000), and had been decided on following advice from abroad.

T.B. Detection Saves Money

WINNIPEG (CP)—Dr. E. L. Ross, retiring president of the Manitoba division, Canadian Medical Association, said today modern methods of medical science in detecting and diagnosing symptoms of tuberculosis will save Canada thousands of dollars in the present war.

Speaking at a luncheon meeting of the C.M.A. convention, Dr. Ross said already, during the second Great War 2,000 persons had been rejected because of tubercular symptoms. Of these one-third required treatment, he said.

For the year 1917, during the first Great War, Dr. Ross said the Canadian Tuberculosis Association figures showed 1,200 soldiers were treated in Canada and hundreds of others were patients in England.

Dr. Ross, superintendent of the sanatorium at Ninette, Man., said the segregation of 10,000 tuberculous people in Canada in sanatoria was the most outstanding factor in controlling the menace of the disease to rising generations.

He expressed the belief that "if this generation could and would deal thoroughly with all its tuberculosis, the next generation would have none with which to deal."

PRENATAL CARE

Dr. F. W. Jackson, deputy Minister of Health and Public Welfare in Manitoba, told the delegates he believed adequate prenatal care "could save the lives of 168 mothers and 1,150 babies in Canada every year." He made the following recommendations dealing with maternal welfare:

1. That organized medicine as represented by the C.M.A. should set up a standard of prenatal care.

2. That the C.M.A. assume as its responsibility the education of the medical profession in Canada in respect to the necessity and desirability of such a minimum standard.

3. That the standard, when set up, be placed in the hands of official public health agencies, with a request that an intensive program be inaugurated to try to insure that a high percentage of pregnant women receive a proper standard of care.

MEDICINE AIDS POLICE

Dr. Maurice Powers of Regina used picture slides in a scientific exhibit at the convention here to show how medical science can co-operate with police in detection of crime.

One section deals with drunken drivers and explains how doctors can help the law to make a drunken driver responsible for tragedies of his own carelessness.

WINNIPEG (CP)—Dr. Gordon S. Fahrini of Winnipeg was installed as president of the association at a special ceremonial last night. He succeeded Dr. Duncan Graham of Toronto.

Dr. E. W. Montgomery of Winnipeg was made honorary member of the C.M.A., and five delegates were made senior members, including Dr. W. F. Drysdale, Nanaimo, B.C.

Alberta Debt Act Argued

OTTAWA (CP)—Counsel for Alberta argued in the Supreme Court of Canada yesterday that the Provincial Debt Adjustment Act of 1937 and amendments are within the powers of the province to enact and do not trespass on Dominion authority.

Senator J. W. deB. Farris, leading counsel for Alberta, dealt with arguments put forward by Aime Geoffrion, acting for the Attorney-General of Canada, and W. N. Tilley, for the Canadian Bankers' Association and the Mortgage Loans Association of Alberta, who contended the act is ultra vires of the province.

B.C. Apple Crop Guarantee Given

KELOWNA (CP)—Word that the Dominion government had passed an order-in-council approving the agreement between the government and the British Columbia fruit industry providing for a government guarantee of 4,600,000 boxes of apples at set prices, has been received here.

Under the agreement the apples would be sold at prices authorized by the Minister of Agriculture, Hon. J. C. Gardiner. A. K. Loyd, general manager of B.C. Tree Fruits Ltd., said he felt the agreement would be received by all growers with a feeling of satisfaction and gratification.

By ROSS MUNRO
SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND (CP)—A group of Canadian airmen, trained under the British Commonwealth Air Training plan to handle aerial photography is in Britain now, with the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Pilots do the actual photographing from the air, but these photographic experts on the ground are the men who receive the films from the planes when they land and turn out prints in less than a half hour for air force and army intelligence branches.

At present most pictures turned out deal with army manoeuvres, bombed cities, camouflage tests and mosaics of areas which intelligence officers require.

Bolstering this department of airmen, under Flt.-Sgt. Louis Le-compte of Ottawa, the new party includes several professional photographers.

E. C. MacMillan of Toronto, son of Sir Ernest MacMillan, one of Canada's leading musicians, is among the new arrivals, along with two former Ontario news-

Germans Claim 2 British Ships

BERLIN (AP)—The German high command claimed today German air raids sank two freighters totalling 11,000 tons and set big fires on the waterfront of Liverpool.

Besides the two freighters, which the communique claimed were sunk out of a convoy on the British east coast, two other large merchantmen were reported hit with heavy bombs.

Brings Back Memories

MAXIM LITVINOFF'S NAME APpeared in the news yesterday. Ankara heard he was about to be honored with an important post by Premier Stalin. No information has come from Moscow so far.
More may be heard of the report before this is read. But it would not be surprising if the head of the Soviet regime is realizing that Vyacheslav Molotov was not the best of successors to the man who was chief of the Russian Foreign Office until the early spring of 1939. It is common knowledge that Sir Stafford Cripps, British ambassador to the Russian capital, has found it extremely difficult to get on with Molotov.
Repeated requests for personal interviews have been countered by Vice-Commissioner for Foreign Affairs Audrey Vishinsky with the explanation that his chief could not see Britain's envoy for "reasons of politeness." It is understood that as recently as last April Sir Stafford had information with respect to Germany's intentions—suggestive of Prime Minister Churchill's warning to M. Stalin a few weeks ago—which he had tried without success to whisper into the Molotovian ear.
What connection these difficulties may have had with the Soviet chief's assumption of the Premiership must naturally remain a matter for conjecture.

Litvinoff's removal from office, of course, produced a first-class sensation in the diplomatic world at the time Anglo-French negotiations were proceeding towards the establishment of an anti-Hitler bloc in April and May of 1939. It suited the Herr Doktor Goebbels to perfection; he figuratively took the lid off his propaganda cauldron and promptly, dished out to all and sundry that the schemes of London and Paris had been completely thwarted. In his own publicity organ, "Der Angriff," he splashed the following on the front page:
"At the very moment that the Britons were looking expectantly into the pot in which their alliance plan is boiling there was a big crash; fat Comrade Foreign Commissar Litvinoff-Finkelstein exploded in Moscow.
The news struck the British Foreign Office like a bomb." And it can be added now that, for once, Hitler's publicity director had estimated the effect of Stalin's action fairly accurately. Britain had assigned a junior official of the Foreign Office to conduct the negotiations in Moscow, a policy which Russia resented much as she resented British and French refusal to invite a Soviet spokesman to Munich six months previously, with the result finally reflected in the Russo-German nonaggression pact.

As we said in these columns at the time of the change in the Russian Foreign Office, the anti-totalitarian nations had in Maxim Litvinoff a negotiator whom they evidently could trust, and did trust, for his record as his country's plain-speaking diplomat, his in-imate knowledge of world conditions, had created for him a reputation in all the European capitals which commanded unmistakable respect. He did not ask those statesmen with whom he was on intimate terms to accept his own or his country's political philosophy. But he had established in the minds of the most skeptical diplomats a realization that they were dealing with a man of vision and understanding—and, above all, an ardent advocate of peace. Twelve months before Adolf Hitler became Chancellor of Germany, Litvinoff had gone to the first session of the much-advertised Disarmament Conference to express his country's views. He told the assembled delegates of all the nations that the only way to disarm was to disarm. That was four years before Nazi troops marched into the Rhineland. If the former Russian Com-missar for Foreign Affairs should be called back at this late stage, Britain will have a good friend—who hates the Germans and the German system as much as Mr. Churchill hates them.

Contraband Then and Now

ALTHOUGH THE UNITED STATES MAY be slow to anger, like Great Britain, the Germans would be foolish to conclude that because there is no hysterical public outpouring over the sinking of the Robin Moor our neighbor is in any mood to surrender more than she already has. Surrendered by her own neutrality laws. One fact which has impressed itself on both the unofficial as well as the official mind, however, is that the incident in question has brought the war within 700 miles of the coast of Brazil in very definite fashion.
Realization of this truth in itself by the people of the United States may mean much or little; but it has far-reaching significance for the whole Western Hemisphere as a unit determined to act in common accord against all totalitarian threats from without as well as from within.

The man in the street naturally wants to know if the United States has the right to send an unarmed ship, carrying no munitions of war, through shipping lanes far removed from anything generally recognized as a "combat zone" to South Africa, parts of South Africa being at war with Germany?
The United States quite properly believes she has that right, or the Robin Moor would not have been where she was, carrying what she carried. Is that right to be subjected to a "shooting war" if she believes she has it, and tries to exercise it? Has Germany the right to fight her war anywhere in the world, to sink any ship bound for any port of any country allied to the British, whenever some sub-leutenant in charge of a submarine considers cargo contraband? These are questions being asked by ordinary folk in the neighboring republic.

In the first Great War, of course, the subject of contraband and contraband control brought the United States and Great Britain at times into a sharp conflict of view. Old rules of warfare were altered to meet the conditions of the new. Nearly everything suddenly became war material in some form or another and Britain was compelled greatly to increase her contraband list. In other words, the precise requirements of the British blockade demanded the seizure of anything and everything judged to be of service to the enemy, whether directly or indirectly. On one or two occasions, for example, President Wilson complained almost as bitterly against what he termed Britain's "bloodless blockade" as he did about the depredations of German submarines. Neither in the case of the Robin Moor nor in respect of any other subject of United States objection to Nazi conduct is Mr. Roosevelt likely to prolong an exchange of "notes" such as characterized diplomatic formalities between Washington and Berlin in 1916. In temperament and training the present incumbent at the White House is a realist in every sense of the term.

Our Gyro Visitors

VICTORIA EXTENDS CORDIAL GREETings to the members of Gyro International who are in the city for the consideration of business affecting their energetic and progressive organization. To those who have come from the United States a particularly warm welcome is assured. Never in the history of the service club movement have deliberations such as those now taking place in this capital of British Columbia been fraught with such importance. Not that we suppose the Gyros are under any delusion about the part they play in the moving and tragic international panoramic scene; but the character of the organization, the ideals it translates into practical performance, makes for better understanding between the two nations whose age-old friendship and identity of purpose, especially at this stage of the world's history, are a working example of common sense in human relationships.

'Admiral of Capitulation'

THOSE WHO MAY STILL TRY TO FIND an excuse for the traitorous Admiral Darlan, who are apt to overemphasize the nature of the pressure to which he, in common with Marshal Petain, was subjected, often forget the many decent things he could have done if only to save his own reputation as well as his country's honor.
Free French Admiral Muselier, however, summed up the conduct of this creature of self-aggrandizement when he uttered the following condemnation of the man who might have been expected to prevent further difficulties for Britain:

"Betraying the word given to the Allies, you gave up the struggle while our navy was intact in material, while the personnel of the same navy, this wonderful body of men that you and I had the honor to command, desired only one thing—to continue the struggle and fight the invader to the end.

"You committed the greatest mistake that a leader can commit, a capital mistake, an offense against conscience. To these men who had prepared for fighting you ordered surrender and capitulation. You led them to a betrayal of alliance as if such a manoeuvre carried out in face of the enemy was not the worst form of cowardice and treason.

"By this crime against loyalty you put all those under you in an odious position, with complete lack of conscience, so that they did not know what their duty was or how to perform it. And heaven knows to what catastrophe this moral crisis which you imposed on us has led us. You will remain in history to be known as 'the Admiral of the Capitulation'."

NO BOGEY

From Winnipeg Free Press

A further slight increase in the cost of living is reported by the Bureau of Statistics.
On May 1, it was 9.4 per cent above the average for the years 1935-39. In the United States there has been a 14 per cent increase in the general average of prices since September, 1939, and the increase in the three months, March to May, was 4.7 per cent, much greater than in Canada. Since we are invariably affected by economic conditions in the U.S., the reason is quite clear for the statement by Professor W. A. McIntosh, at Kingston, that both the price control and the war supply problems in Canada are bound to be aggravated by the enormous and increasing expenditure of the United States on its defence program.

Thus, the rise in prices in the U.S., including the marked increase in the last three months, is not to be regarded by Canadians, in any mood of detachment, as simply an interesting effect of the world war upon our neighbors. It is something that comes right home to us. Prices have been rising faster in the U.S. than in Canada, and they will pull ours upward if the most effective kind of price control is not applied in both countries.
If there are any people who still think that inflation is a bogey, they should take note of what is happening. Without vigorous control measures now, they would soon see many things which they ordinarily obtain going right up beyond their reach.

CARROT

FOR THE LAST few minutes I have been contemplating a carrot. You may think this is a rather futile thing to be doing at this particular crisis in history, and yet I do not grudge the time. For this carrot had a hole in it. It was a rotten and empty carrot and crumbled to pulp in my fingers. It had been blighted in its first youth, had never reached edible size and was thoroughly bad.

Worms had got it. Worms are getting everything this year because we ordered a mild winter. And if you will contemplate a carrot with a worm in it for a few moments you will be a wiser man forever afterwards.
For consider that all our food in the world is subject to worms. If the worms grew to sufficient numbers, if the winters were mild enough, we should have no food at all. It would only require 12 months of domination of these little white and slimy worms to starve every man and woman off the face of the earth.

The wonder is that we can go on living complacently, as we do, when we are but 12 months away from starvation, every one of us. How often do you pause and consider that your ability to eat tonight, your capacity to rise tomorrow, in brief, your full stomach and comfortable life are due to millions of obscure men toiling in fields somewhere and to nature's marvelous balance, which keeps the white worms down. Go pick a carrot, one with worms in it, and learn gratitude and humility. And if you find any way of killing these damnable worms, send me a telegram, collect.

DULL STUFF

BY THE DULL BUT important statistics of the government, as presented in The Financial Post, I observe that the wages and salary earners of Canada are getting about a fifth more income today than they were in 1938. They are, in other words, far better off, for the cost of living has not gone up a fifth or anything like it, and taxes do not absorb all the increase. But if there be any argument on that score, the volume of purchasing in Canada removes it. We are continuing on our wild buying spree. Sales are up 23 per cent in April over those of 1940, and everybody is having a good time. This is what the experts call Total War.

In ordinary times nothing could be better than these figures. They would show a sound prosperity. But in these times they show something else entirely, for the obvious fact is that if we are going to make more war goods we cannot keep up our production of peace goods—a fact so obvious that you cannot get it through the head of the public, and when you mention it people accuse you of being an enemy agent.

We cannot forever spend our new earnings on goods because there will not be enough goods for us all to buy—that is, if we are going to produce even the supply of munitions now on schedule. The money must be diverted into the war, which means nothing more than that the energy, manpower and materials represented by the money, must be diverted into the war. In the Victory Loan they give us a chance to divert the energy into the war and defer the investment in goods—to store up the luxuries, in other words, until after the war is over. But whether we do it sanely in this fashion, or insanely by inflation, we assuredly must have less luxuries in Canada, and soon. The spree is drawing rapidly to its close.

ALL INCOME ISN'T CASH

From the Survey Graphic

The per capita national income of the United States, according to the National Industrial Conference board, is about $600. The per capita national income of Mexico is only $37; of Cuba, about $88; of Argentina, where all those rich ranchers are supposed to come from, $216; Uruguay, $159; Chile, $77; Brazil, $29.

This does not mean that the people in these countries are starving to death—far from it—but it does mean they eat and wear what they produce themselves and have little left to spend.

FOR HERB FANCIERS

For those who're making herb gardens a hobby, there's a newly published book, called "Herbs," by Helen Noyes Webster, that should be most helpful. For instance, here's something pretty nice to know what to do with mint leaves.

Candied mint leaves: Pick your prettiest mint leaves. They must be dry and clean.
Dip both sides in slightly whipped egg whites.
Holding by the stem, coat both sides of the leaves immediately with granulated sugar.
Lay carefully on waxed paper. Allow to dry thoroughly. Pack in boxes. They will keep green and sugary for a year.

MEDICAL SPECIALISTS' FEES

One of New York's foremost physicians now reveals the story of the call he received, some years ago, to go to Durham, N.C., and treat Doris Duke Cromwell's father. He spent a day and a half at the Duke estate, and then prescribed a change of diet. At the end of the month, he submitted his bill—$14,000. Duke became enraged at this, called his own doctor, and said: "That New York specialist wants me to pay him $14,000 just for changing my bread to toast. It's outrageous. Speak to him." The doctor phoned the specialist at the dispensary where he was treating a group of patients without fee. "I have two kinds of fees," the specialist explained. "The first is $14,000; the second is nothing. Mr. Duke can have his choice of which he wants to pay me." Mr. Duke sent his cheque for $14,000.

Parallel Thoughts

the truth, and the truth shall make you free.—John 8.31.32.

DOROTHY WALKS OUT

Dorothy Thompson, the columnist, refused to sit at a dinner table the other night in New York where the guests were lauding the achievements of Hitler. She said she couldn't sit with her enemies. . . "Enemies?" asked one of them, "but you are a pure Aryan journalist!" "Perhaps," was her volley, "but I'm also an American, and you people are un-American—so you are my enemies!"

AID TO RUSSIA

Fate plays queer tricks on men and nations. It was Winston Churchill, more than any other leader, who was responsible for the sending into Russia of invading Allied armies in the early days of the Soviet regime. It is Churchill who has now rallied the western world behind the idea of supporting the Russians with every form of available assistance.

No one in this part of the world is under any illusions as to why we will—indeed, why we must—support Russia in her resistance to the Nazis. We are helping the Russians in order to help ourselves. The Communists have many faults. But lack of realism is not one of them. They will not misunderstand the motives behind co-operation between the democracies and themselves.

The question for the near future is likely to be two-fold: What can we supply to help the Russians in our common fight against the Nazis? How can we get supplies to Russia if we have what they need?

FOOTWEAR

It has been common knowledge that for years back the Russians have lacked boots in sufficient quantities to supply even their armies properly. All war correspondents in Finland agreed that the conditions of the Russian prisoners of war was pitiable.
Thousands of them were in captivity for want of adequate foot-covering.

This war might very well be decided on one front by the ability of the Russian armies to hold out during the next winter.
That in turn may possibly depend on a sufficiency of ordinary civilian things like boots.

The world learned during the Russian revolutionary wars that the Soviet soldiers can operate under conditions of almost unbelievable hardship. But there is a minimum below which human endurance cannot go. The surplus wheat and leather of North America may yet help win this world war No. 2.

EPIDEMIC

From Bridge River News

An epidemic of name changing is taking place in B.C. as persons with foreign sounding names apply to have them changed.
There should be the closest check up on persons seeking to masquerade under other than their own names. Recently in the B.C.
Gazette a great Scottish clan name has been applied for by a man anxious to shed his own legal name. Why not have the Japanese take on famous Scottish or English names? It is quite as much their right to do so as that of certain other foreigners who try to gain some of the respectability which old British names may carry. It is not uncommon for newcomers from the ghettos of Europe to appropriate old Canadian family names.

LUXURY SPENDING
From Fort Erie Times-Review
There is a good deal of loose talk about the necessity for taxing workers so that they won't bring about inflation through too much luxury spending. In 1937 the average yearly earnings of wage earners in manufacturing industries were $965—about $18 a week. How much of that can a man with three or four dependents spend on nonessentials?

breathe freely again we shall begin to build a fairer Britain—

5 NATIONS TALK WHEAT PROBLEM

OTTAWA (CP)—Representatives of the four major wheat exporting countries, troubled by the weight of grain surpluses now on hand, will meet in Washington July 10 to discuss questions relating to international trade in wheat after the war, Trade Minister MacKinnon said today.

The conference was decided on some weeks ago, and invitations were sent out by the United States. Canada, with a wheat surplus of 500,000,000 bushels, expressed readiness to take part in the discussions.

Mr. MacKinnon said officials of Canada, the United States, Argentina and Australia will attend, and the United Kingdom, as the principal wheat importing country will be represented.

"The purpose of the meeting will be to exchange information and views as to steps which might be taken to safeguard against excessive competition for markets following the conclusion of hostilities," Mr. MacKinnon said.

The Canadian officials who will attend the conference have not yet been named, but it is expected that George McIvor, chief commissioner of the Canadian Wheat Board, will be the principal Canadian representative along with R. V. Biddulph, European commissioner of the Canadian Wheat Board; Dr. C. F. Wilson, chief, Agricultural Statistics, Dominion Bureau of Statistics, and representatives of the Departments of Agriculture and External Affairs.

Cheer-up Concert

The first of the regular "cheer-up" concerts arranged for the season by the city's celebration committee will be held next Wednesday evening at 8, Alderman W. H. Davies, chairman, announced today.

The program will include all last year's features, with Mabel Irvine's old-time orchestra providing music for dancing on the green and community singing. Introduction of visitors will be carried on in a manner similar to last year.

Travel Party Here From U.S.

Twenty-five travel writers and travel agency officials from the United States visited the city yesterday and were tendered a luncheon at the Empress Hotel by the Provincial Government Travel Bureau. Afterwards they were taken on a tour of the city and Saanich Peninsula.

Hon. W. J. Asselstine, Minister of Trade and Industry, welcomed the visitors on behalf of the province and Alderman Ed. Williams for the city. Miss Nancy Ford of Chicago, voiced their appreciation. E. G. Rowbottom, Deputy Minister of Trade and Industry, presided.

Mr. Asselstine said the government, alive to Canada's need of tourists and for the foreign exchange they would bring, appreciated the part that newspaper writers could play in presenting the picture to the public. He expressed thanks for courtesies shown the bureau by officials in U.S. cities.

20 PER CENT SPECIAL OFFER

Alderman Williams told the visitors Victoria had a real claim to the title "City of Flowers" but could offer American visitors something they could not get "anywhere else in the world."

"We offer you 20 per cent on your money," he said. "You get 10 per cent on the exchange and it is worth another 10 per cent to spend it here."

Miss Ford said the writers were delighted to include Victoria in their tour for the first time. She mentioned they had already visited Banff, Jasper, Lake Louise and the mountain peaks of British Columbia where they saw unrivalled scenery.

Mr. Rowbottom said Canada was quite frankly asking Americans to visit Canada this year "because we need your dollars."

GIVE IT BACK

"But we will give you 10 per cent on every dollar and we'll send every dollar back to you to buy munitions that will fight for the same cause of freedom for which the United States is fighting," he said.

The party included travel writers from magazines and daily newspapers in many of the large centres of the east and the mid-west, including New York, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Minneapolis. In a three weeks trip the party is covering upwards of 4,000 miles, mostly by automobile. Northwest arrangements were handled by Mrs. L. Kirkpatrick of Spokane Chamber of Commerce.

Representatives of the Victoria Island Publicity Bureau and the Chamber of Commerce attended the luncheon.

Rotary President's Remark Interpreted

CHICAGO (AP)—Rotary International, to avoid misinterpretation of its position during the present war, has drawn attention to the address of its new president, Tom J. Davis, of Butte, Mont., at the close of its 32nd annual convention in Denver June 20.

"National emergencies make unique demands upon Rotarians and Rotary Clubs," Davis said.

"In these national emergencies, Rotarians and Rotary will not fail. To you and me, as nationals, come demands which our countries have a complete right to make upon us. That a Rotarian should be less than loyal to his own land, should fail to give to his own country a full measure of devotion, is unthinkable."

"It is true that corporate Rotary cannot and will not concern itself with, nor attempt to influence, the ideology of governments existing in the nations where Rotary may function."

"It is well, however, to reiterate that great statement of the Havana convention: "In these catastrophic times, the board feels that it should re-emphasize to Rotarians throughout the world that Rotary is based on the ideal of service, and where freedom, justice, truth, sanctity of the pledged word and respect for human rights do not exist, Rotary cannot live nor its ideal prevail."

A press misinterpretation of Davis' remarks, Rotary officials said, had led Canadian clubs to ask for clarification.

New Relations Official

OTTAWA (CP)—Roger Irwin will serve as assistant director of public relations for the Air Ministry. The appointment was announced by Air Minister Power.

Mr. Irwin was a member of the Toronto Star's editorial staff until his appointment. He succeeds I. Norman Smith of Ottawa, who returned recently to the Ottawa Journal as assistant managing director and secretary-treasurer.

PASTOR HONORED BY CONGREGATION

Congregation of Belmont United Church last night honored their pastor, Rev. Bryce H. Wallace, who will leave for Vancouver to take over the pastorate of Cedar Cottage.

Mr. Wallace, pastor of Belmont United for the past four years, will preach his final sermon Sunday evening.

R. P. Knott acted as chairman of the gathering and W. E. Cook led the congregation in singing. The choir, under the leadership of Miss Dermot Bailey, sang three selections.

Mr. Wallace was presented with a purse of money as a farewell gift from the congregation by Mrs. G. A. Butler. Mrs. Wallace received a bouquet.

Speeches by church members paid tribute to pastor's work for the church and the strides the church had made under his leadership, Mr. Wallace in answer to the speeches thanked the congregation for its support. Refreshments were served by the women's auxiliary and a social time was enjoyed.

MAC'S BOMBER FUND

My name is "Mac." I am a dog. When I heard my mistress say something about Mac's Bomber I thought I was in for trouble, but when she said something about Hitler and killing the "rat" I pricked up my ears in expectation and wagged my tail like mad. My mistress looked at me and said "You can't get in on that rat, Mac, but I will send a dollar to the Hope you will get many dollars and "Hit Hitler Hard."

Victorian Lectures On Clothes Design

Mr. Victor Mott, well known in Victoria, B.C., as an outstanding fashion designer, is a graduate of the Fashion Art School of San Francisco. Before he started to study design, he was employed by a number of large department stores as a display-man, so he brings to his present vocation a background of practical experience.

Mr. Mott will address the Canadian Home Economics Association convention at the Empress Hotel next week on "Clothes and Personality," using models to illustrate his points.

At his studio in Victoria, Mr. Mott designs with marked success distinctive fashions for a discriminating clientele. His inherent feeling for color and line and his appreciation of beautiful materials find expression in the creation of costumes that are harmonious in every detail. Besides executing his ideas in fabrics, he is able to design and make costume jewelry, for he works with equal skill in metal.

In 1937, Mr. Mott gave a course of lectures to the students of the Vocational School for Girls in both Vancouver and Victoria. For the last few years, he has conducted a class in Dress Appreciation for adults at the Victoria Night School, and he also teaches fashion designing and pattern drafting to private students. A short time ago, he wrote a series of articles for a Vancouver publication, and women readers learned a great deal from his amusing and lively comments on the all-important subject of effective dress.

Original Dances For 'Rhythm Revue'

The "Rhythm Revue," to be presented by the dancing pupils of Miss Betty Clair on Friday at the Crystal Garden, feature many interesting numbers. The baby class will present "The Butterflies Ball," with wee butterfies, an elf and flower girls. A "Mexican Fiesta" features a tango, La Maxie and hat dance.

HARGREAVES-BILLETT

In traditional white, Miss Irene Anne Billett, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Billett, Sovereign, Sask., became the bride last night at St. John's Church of James Neil Hargreaves, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Hargreaves, 220 Government Street, Victoria, the Rev. George Biddle officiating.

Tall baskets of white stock, snapdragons and gladioli stood at the chancel rail, vases of lilies being placed on the altar. Tiny bouquets of white freesia marked the guest pews. The brunette bride looked lovely as she came down the aisle on the arm of her brother, Clarence Billett of Victoria, wearing a long white taffeta gown with full skirt terminating in short train, long pointed sleeves and sweetheart neckline. She wore pearls, and a finger-tip veil of sheer net, caught to her head with orange blossoms. She carried a sheaf bouquet of red roses and carnations.

Miss Eva Turner, the only attendant, wore a long pink georgette frock with V-neck, full bishop sleeves and full skirt. Her chapel veil of pink net was gathered to the top of her head with a rosette of pink carnations and blue delphinium. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and blue delphinium.

Supporting the groom was Harold Anthony, Vancouver, and Roy Hargreaves, brother of the groom, Victoria, and Ernest Dent, Vancouver, ushers. During the signing of the register Miss Grace Hamp sang "Day of Golden Promise."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, Government Street, which was beautifully decorated with baskets of roses and Canterbury bells, the bride and groom and his parents receiving under an arch of white blossoms and white streamers and bells. Mrs. Hargreaves wore a navy blue afternoon dress of light crepe, with white lace collar and cuffs, navy straw hat and white accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses. Centring the dining-room table was a three-tier wedding cake, with pink candles on either side.

For her honeymoon trip by motor to Banff and Calgary, the bride donned a black pin-stripe suit, her small ribbon hat and accessories being black also, accented by a corsage of red roses. On their return, the bride and groom will reside in Victoria.

Out of town guests were: Mr. Walter Cape, Huxley, Alta.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Aspin, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. H. Anthony, Vancouver.

Cathedral Fete Nets $225

The Parish Guild and Sewing Circle of Christ Church Cathedral raised approximately $225 at the garden party held yesterday afternoon at the Bishop's Close. Over 300 guests thronged the garden, generously patronizing the gaily-decorated booths of fancy work, home cooking, candy, flowers and ice cream. Bishop A. H. E. Sexton welcomed the visitors and Dean Spencer Elliott spoke briefly on the origin of the guild under the late Dean C. S. Quainton, recalling the importance of the motto "Service in Fellowship" in these trying times.

Tea was served later in the Memorial Hall at small tables colorfully centred with vases of flowers. Pupils of Miss Violet Fowkes delighted the guests with several original dances and the Kinsmen's Boys' Band played throughout the afternoon. Bingo was also enjoyed, and photographs of the Cathedral and Bishop's Close, taken by Miss Margaret Elliott.

Mrs. G. H. Bissell, president of the Guild, was general convener of the event, her assistants being: Mrs. A. Villers, fancy work; Mrs. J. Limer, home cooking; Mrs. C. T. Wigglesworth, candy; Miss Maude Lettice, flowers; Mrs. E. Wood, ice cream; Mrs. George Miles, tea; David Slater and Harvey Richardson, bingo.

"Great Guns" Revue Brings in $623

Women's Auxiliary to the 5th B.C. Coast Brigade, R.C.A. (A.F.), report the revue, "Great Guns," realized the sum of $623.11 net, to be used for overseas comforts for men of the brigade. Cigarettes will be sent this month to all men of the brigade overseas. Mrs. G. Elliott, Mrs. T. Ross and Mrs. Taylor are conveners of overseas parcels. Knitted articles were turned in and wool given out.

Future meetings will be held at Signal Hill. Next meeting will be held July 9 at 2.15 p.m. Mrs. T. MacGimpsey was general convener of the show.

Enjoying Victoria sunshine whilst their husbands attend the 1941 International Gyro convention convening this week in the Empress Hotel are: Mrs. H. Darling of New York, left, wife of an executive officer of that organization and Mrs. W. W. Robinson of Toronto, wife of the incoming international president.

By ELIZABETH MACDONELL

If you've never attended a Gyro convention, you've missed something in life.

It takes heat, that makes the most meticulous male look longingly for a corner where he can surreptitiously remove his waistcoat, even in cool Victoria weather; it takes mobs of gaily-garbed women trying to pass gossip above the deafening din of "Why, you're Sam Brags from Hamilton, Used to live in Victoria years ago. 'Member me?" "Did you hear that Ernie caught a huge salmon at Cowichan yesterday? Wait'll we show the folks in Denver." "D'you know how many miles we made from Dayton to Seattle?"

It takes all of that and trays and trays of cocktails and clouds of cigarette smoke and above it all the straining strings of a five-piece salon orchestra, all garbed in blue satin shirts, Russian style, fiddling in vain above the din.

That's some idea of the scene in the lower lounge at the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon at the opening cocktail party of the 1941 Gyro international convention.

OLD HOME WEEK FOR DENVERITES

It was "old home week" for the Denver delegates. There were five of them, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Vandenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Q. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Rodney Jones, Mr. and Mrs. George Nellis and the "Lou Nissens," of whom delegates said "everybody knows them," but who proved to be very elusive to this reporter.

"We're having a wonderful time," said Mrs. Smith, smart in a green and white print frock, with a cocky white hat, and looking in vain for her husband out of the corner of her eye. "My husband caught a 19-pound salmon yesterday at Cowichan Bay, I think it was. We've got it on ice and we're going to take it back and show it to the folks in Denver. We've eaten crab and salmon and all your marvelous seafoods. But we're going to take this one back. Even if you're crazy about it, you can't eat fish every day, can you?"

It was her first visit to Victoria for Mrs. "Boots" Vandenberg, whose husband is a mortician and also governor of the Denver District of Gyro.

Looking 16 in a brown sheer dress with gay white polka dots, white fishu collar and natural straw picture hat, she enthused about Victoria, "the cute pots of flowers on the lamps and the shops" and promises to come back soon. She and her husband motored up, as did all the Denver delegates, and are vacationing in Long Beach, Calif., before returning home.

TALKING ABOUT WEATHER

Mrs. W. B. Patterson from Vancouver was there dressed in a chic black frock, her white hat with tremendous bow standing out in the crowd. And Mr. and Mrs. R. Black and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Mann, all of Vancouver, Mr. Mann being president of the Gyro there. And chatting busily, comparing Victoria weather to eastern chill, were Mr. and Mrs. W. Robinson, Toronto, he being the incoming president of the

"Look at my emblem," he chuckled, pointing to the tartan and the heather on the cap. "We were walking down the street in Vancouver a couple of days ago, and suddenly I heard the skirling of the pipes. Ah, it was balm to my Scottish soul," he sighed. "My wife asked me how I could call that music, and I told her it must be bred in me. You're a Macdonell, you should know. 'Strangewood' Fete Realizes $1,500

In the absence of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. E. W. Hamber, who were to have been present, Brigadier J. G. Austin of the Canadian Red Cross Society declared the fete open.

"We all realize the amount of work involved in organizing this affair," he said. "On behalf of the Canadian Red Cross Society, I wish to thank Mrs. McMullen and members of the Gordon Head Red Cross for their efforts."

Brigadier Austin also paid tribute to the assistance given the Red Cross at all times by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Hamber and read a letter in which His Honor conveyed his best wishes for the success of the affair.

Brief showers failed to lessen the enthusiasm of the guests who numbered close to 3,000. They explored the beautiful gardens, bought attractively-wrapped parcels from the ever-popular lady with a thousand pockets, flowers from diminutive Piccadilly Kate and glimpsed into the future with the host of fortune tellers on hand.

Throughout the afternoon the various stalls, novelty attractions and games of chance did a thriving business. Red, white and blue streamers outlined the framework of the stalls. Carrying out the patriotic theme, each bore the name of a province of the Dominion.

Music was provided by the Royal Canadian Naval Band and the Garrison Band, who interspersed the playing of patriotic airs with popular tunes. Many guests were attracted to the display of folk dancing given in colorful peasant costume by the girls of the Tillicum School. A smart exhibition of precision marching by the Victoria Girls' Drill Team and the performance of the Highland Lassies' Pipe Band rounded out the program.

Wearing a gypsy costume, which she brought with her from Madras, India, recently, Miss Kay Wilson headed the list of fortune tellers. Others who were also well patronized were Mrs. Milne, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Hooks and Mrs. Frampton.

Beneath the trees on the upper lawn, tables centred with roses, were arranged for tea guests. Included in the official party were Brigadier J. G. Austin and Mrs. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. McMullen, Mrs. A. J. Dallen, Mrs. J. L. Gilmison, Mrs. H. S. Beckton, Miss F. Fitzgibbon, Mrs. C. Williams, Mrs. R. W. Braide, Miss E. M. McRae and Mrs. S. Ley.

Mrs. E. A. Mitchell was general convener of the affair. Home cooking stall was in charge of Mrs. J. Hogg; delicatessen, Mrs. J. P. Holmes; flowers, Mrs. E. W. Darcus; vegetables and fruit, Mrs. F. Aitkens; candy, Miss A. Williamson; novelties, Mrs. C. A. Goodwin and Miss Janet Pitchford; tea, Mrs. Spurgeon, Miss Roberts, Mrs. V. Ley, Miss Storey; ice cream and cold drinks, Mrs. J. Tysoe; games, Mr. Spurgeon; lady of a thousand pockets, Mrs. Finmore; cake guessing, Mrs. A.

With the Forces

R.C.A.F. RECRUITS CONTROL OFFICERS

EDMONTON (CP)—The Royal Canadian Air Force has begun recruiting of a limited number of men between 28 and 40 to serve as regional control officers in Britain, Lt. H. W. Aslin, staff officer in charge of manning for the No. 4 training command at Regina, said yesterday.

Officers appointed to regional control duties will be required to undertake the routing and control of aircraft operations, and interception duties, and to report on weather conditions. Candidates will be given a course of intensive training, partly in Canada and partly overseas. The course will include among other subjects organization, flying regulations, pyrotechnics, meteorology, signals and air navigation.

Candidates should have a minimum of junior matriculation, preferably university training; keen intelligence, above average alertness and a clear speaking voice. Applicants under 32 must be physically unfit for flying duties. On appointment, candidates will receive the rank of pilot officer.

HITCH-HIKING 3,000 MILES FOR SOLDIER GROOM — Bunney LaMorey, 19, (left) and Mrs. Betty Young, a bride of six weeks, both of Kirkland Lake, photographed in Toronto, as they parted to hitch-hike to opposite ends of Canada on husband hunts. Bunney is on his way to the big military camp at Nanaimo, where she says her sweetheart, a private, "is all picked out and what's more, he's willing." He expects to be at Nanaimo until November and she expects to stay out here until then. Betty's husband is at Halifax. The two girls said "we hope we only have to walk about one mile for every hundred we ride."

TRAINING — David Henry (Harry) Paterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Paterson, Bridge Street, is in training with the Royal Canadian Air Force. He attended East Wellington School and Brechin High School, and also studied at the Vocational Youth Training Centre at Nanaimo.

Trades School Opened

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—Defence Minister Ralston yesterday officially opened the huge new Canadian army trades school here and told the men in training the school had a twofold purpose—to avoid depletion of workmen from vital war industries and to train maintenance men for a mechanized army. The school eventually will house approximately 2,500 men.

Fighters' Rail Fares Not Ready Yet

Officials of the National Defence Department in Ottawa said yesterday it would be 10 days or two weeks before the new railway rates for sailors' and soldiers' travel on annual and embarkation leaves go into effect.

"Details now are being worked out," one source said. On June 11 Defence Minister Ralston announced in the House of Commons an arrangement with the railways to reduce fares for service men on embarkation or annual leave to one-third of the regular price.

Under the arrangement the railways agreed to absorb one-third of the cost of a regular railway ticket and the government agreed to contribute one-third, leaving the other third to be paid by the soldier.

Until the new rate goes into effect, servicemen on leave will continue eligible to purchase return fares for the price of a one-way fare.

Indians Join Up

THE PAS, Man. (CP) — Ten Cree Indians from The Pas reserve enlisted with Canada's armed forces yesterday after hearing their chief say the older braves were looking to "you younger men to do your part" in the struggle of democracy against dictatorship.

"You know what would happen to your women and children should Hitler come here," said Chief Louis McGillivray. "We older ones fought in the last war and we would fight in this if we could be accepted, but we look now to you young men to do your part."

HEADS CORPS—Lieut.-Col. J. A. McCamus, Toronto, has gone to Camp Borden to take command of the Canadian Armored Corps Training Centre. Lieut.-Col. McCamus was a machine-gun officer in the Great War and has been commanding officer of the Machine-gun Volunteer Training unit in Toronto since last year.

GIVEN RANK OF COLONEL—Col. W. H. S. Macklin, a permanent force officer in the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals, has been appointed director of staff duties with the rank of colonel, it was announced at National Defence headquarters. He succeeds Brig. M. H. S. Penhale, recently appointed camp commandant at Petawawa camp.

Madrid Riot

LONDON (CP) — The British government is energetically protesting against a riot outside the British embassy in Madrid, it was announced today.

Authoritative quarters declared yesterday's disturbance involving between 300 and 400 men wearing Falangist uniforms "was carefully organized and staged by Germany."

"The object was to provoke bad relations between Great Britain and Spain," these quarters said, adding that British Ambassador Sir Samuel Hoare had taken up the matter with the Spanish gov-

Doctors Oppose State Medicine

WINNIPEG (CP)—Dr. Duncan Graham of Toronto, retiring president of the Canadian Medical Association, expressed the opinion today state medicine was not the best way of bringing to every Canadian the full benefits of curative and preventive medicine.

He told several hundred delegates at the 72nd annual convention of the C.M.A. here that in ernment while Foreign Secretary Eden protested to the Duke of Alba, Spanish ambassador in London.

The demonstrators were accompanied by German photographers and movie cameramen and "a number of vehicles containing bricks and other missiles," it was said.

Most of the windows of the embassy were broken and several cars on the property were damaged, it was said.

"Trained agitators" were said to have been in the crowd and attempted to incite the demonstrators to "renewed destruction when it became apparent the disturbance was slackening."

The disturbance was quelled, it was said, by Spanish police.

his opinion this goal could be reached only through a co-operative effort on the part of the organized professions, governments, public welfare organizations and the public itself.

In his valedictory address prior to relinquishing the presidency to Dr. Gordon Fahrni of Winnipeg, Dr. Graham dealt with state medicine and health insurance, voluntary and compulsory.

He said the profession as a whole was opposed to state medicine, but said there might be some health insurance plans which would prove satisfactory and the attitude of doctors would depend on what they were.

Dr. Sidney Smith, president of the University of Manitoba, warned Canadian proper mental and moral attitudes in this war were indeed "necessary tools for finishing the job."

"This war is not merely a titanic struggle between navies, armies and air forces," he said at a luncheon for the delegates today. "It is a bitter conflict between two philosophies diametrically opposed—democracy and totalitarianism—in which the stakes are the minds and souls of mankind."

Yesterday the association defeated a proposal for a national licensing authority for all Canada which would permit doctors to practice in any province.

URGES U.S. FORCES AID BRITAIN

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Full out use of the United States navy, army and air force for the aid of Britain was advocated here by Dr. Edward Mead Earle, professor in the Institute for advanced study, Princeton. Victory for Britain is impossible without the prompt and early entry of the United States into the war, he declared.

"Having made the lease-lend treaty, we have made our choice, nor can we wait until the bomb-shell strikes us," he told the fourth biennial conference on Canadian-American affairs. "The American navy without restrictions must be thrown into the Battle of the Atlantic to prevent Hitler from severing our connections with the British Isles."

If the use of the navy meant the firing of guns, and the firing of guns meant use of the navy then the United States air force should be used for support of both, he told applauding delegates.

He warned that Germany's battle with Russia will not curtail the combined submarine and bomber attacks on British shipping. Because of the invention of the submarine and the threat of the bombing plane, "The British Isles will never again be the metropolitan centre of sea power they have been for 300 years," he said.

He stated he "would be interested in knowing what Mr. Lindbergh says about Russia's negotiated peace." There is no negotiated peace possible. "This is a knock-down and drag-out fight, with no punches pulled."

Wins Broun Award

DETROIT (AP)—The American Newspaper Guild has presented its $250 Heywood Broun award for the year's "best newspaper job in the Broun spirit" to Tom O'Connor of the New York newspaper PM.

He was cited for "his moving report on the conditions in the nation's mines, dealing with the lack of safety in the mines which has taken so great a toll in human life."

New Courier Service

Funds for the new service were recommended by the House of Representatives appropriations committee.

KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!

Pepples Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.

The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did— even look healthy and strong, yet you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, doped, tired and peeples.

Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power.

Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. They are world-famous for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up, you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today.

Where to Stay and Play On Vancouver Island

By E. L. FORBES

My guess is that over the coming week-end there will be big doings in many Victoria homes. Why? Because the calendar says camping time is here!

What a glorious scramble it is! Checking food supplies, locating the children's pet dog or cat and keeping it under control until the take-off, digging out dad's old bathing suit, loading the family jalopy until it groans and squeaks in protest. Then off in a flurry of laughter to a favorite cottage, cabin or auto camp somewhere on Vancouver Island. Just to write about it makes me shiver with excitement. Wish I was going, too!

Restful seaside holiday. Fifty minute drive, 23 miles southwest of Victoria, over the winding roads of Sooke. It's GLENAIRLEY FARM on beautiful Sooke Harbor. Comfortable accommodation. Lodge or new cabins.

Ideal for growing children. SEAGIRT, at the end of East Sooke Road. Orchard, green fields, safe beach. Good accommodation. Countryside Inn style. For the inner man. Tastily served meals prepared from the fruits of their own garden and farm—cream too thick to pour, eggs fresh from the nest, vegetables with the dew still on them. This at GROUSE NEST on the Gillespie Road in Sooke.

Privacy, comfort, rest. Cozy one, two and three-room cottages, some with sleeping porches. Bedding linen and dishes if required. Shower houses close to cabins. LANG'S BEACH RESORT on the Island Highway at Royston.

At Qualicum, I recommend a smart little auto court named QUALICUM BEACH BUNGALOW COURT. Every convenience. Hot and cold water. Bathrooms with showers. Nothing to take but your food.

A favorite. CASA DEL MAR at Qualicum Bay. Your choice of smart new duplex accommodation—completely modern—or a comfortable room at the Inn. Delicious meals. Safe beach.

Where guests return. That's the slogan at GREEN GABLES TOURIST CAMP at Qualicum Bay. Just right for family vacation. Good cabins, hot and cold showers. Pure spring water, electric light. Thirty-five acres well timbered grounds. Perfectly safe beach.

Among other things—there is a delightful new clubhouse on the QUALICUM BEACH HOTEL grounds, just above the golf links. One of the many innovations Mr. George Walker, the hotel manager, is bringing into effect.

Familial parties find SUNSET INN at Qualicum Beach an ideal place to spend a vacation. Comfortable rooms, perfect meals, outdoor sports of all kinds, private bathing beach.

For the young folks. For dad and mother too, for Junior and the tiny tots. GRANDVIEW CAMP, right on the beach at Qualicum is a general favorite. Cabins and cottages, small and large. Reasonable.

Relax in pleasant, peaceful surroundings. BAYVIEW PARK at Qualicum Beach. Clean modern cottages, big shade trees, private beach.

Near Campbell River you'll discover FERNDALL AUTO CAMP. Modern cottages. Electric light and good water. Worth trying!

Making a leisureing tour of the island? Then be sure and stop a night or two at WILLOWS HOTEL, Campbell River. Well established. Reputation for g-r-a-n-d meals!

Items to note. At THE ELK HOTEL in Comox, lunches and teas are provided for beach and fishing excursions, or for jolly motor tours. Bridge is arranged in the evenings for those who enjoy it.

Everything you need at GREEN LANTERN AUTO CAMP near Courtenay. Inner spring mattresses, full-sized ranges. Hot and cold water. Tent space if desired.

Well known to many Victoria families. HARRISON'S PARKS-VILLE BEACH CAMP will be the mecca of many touring parties during the coming months. Good cabins and cottages. Sand beach where children can play safely all day long. Friendly atmosphere.

Hurry! Hurry! If you wish to spend a vacation at YELLOW POINT LODGE. It's very popular, and no wonder, with its beautiful wooded fields, white sand beaches, comfortable cottages and unique log lodge. Good eats, too.

On the way! Stop and snack at CHUCK'S OYSTER BAR, just north of Ladysmith. Fresh oysters while you wait. Cocktails, soups, on the half-shell fried any way you like 'em.

A pick-me-up at THE WIGWAM in Ladysmith will please the kiddies and get them over the last few miles in peace and quiet. Tasty light lunches here. Also afternoon teas.

Open all year round. THE MAPLE INN at Maple Bay. Many of the rooms have private verandas and all are equipped with electric light and hot and cold running water. Typical English garden runs right down to the beach.

For fishermen. A stop at RIVERSIDE INN at Cowichan Lake will convince the most skeptical that it is possible to fish in comfort. Good beds here. Grand meals.

Try Mill Bay. Not far away but with everything for a perfect holiday. Good accommodation, including ROSEBANK AUTO CAMP with its neat, modern cabins, safe beach, shade trees. Right for the kiddies. Pleasant guest house—SUMMERVILLE—where friendly informality, home-like surroundings, airy rooms and delicious meals are featured. KILMALU GUEST HOUSE, different again. Charming appointments. Beautiful garden. Peace and rest here!

On a summer day drive to the SCENIC VIEW LODGE on the Malahat for a cool, crisp salad luncheon. Delicious! Incidentally the view from this lodge is something to rave about!

Going fishing? Phone HARRY PEARD or HUGH CREED at Brentwood Bay. They have the boats and fishing tackle for hire. And they know where the fish are sure to be biting!

Rural England! That's what you'll think when you first see BRENTA LODGE with its driveway and ivy-covered arches, its doves and rows of posts linked together by the familiar white chain. It takes the visitor back, in imagination, to the English countryside.

Modern comfort! Airy living-rooms, bright bedrooms, completely equipped kitchen, real brick fireplace, Venetian blinds, tiled showers. I could go on telling you about the new BRENTWOOD AUTO COURT. It's tops in modern tourist accommodation.

For a really delightful outing try the ANCHORAGE TEA GARDENS at Brentwood. Under new management. Mrs. Florence A. Wright of Vancouver now in charge.

English Afternoon Teas—Try THE CHALET at Deep Cove. Devonshire cream. All the trimmings.

Garden Setting—Just right for relaxation and rest. Delicious home cooked meals. Comfortable surroundings. This at WILSONA INN, Deep Cove.

Huskies Retain Rowing Honors

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. (AP)—The western breed of rowing supermen ruled the Hudson River again yesterday.

The Varsity crew from the University of Washington retained its four-mile intercollegiate championship with incredible ease, and the Huskies and second-place California made a mockery of their eastern "competition."

Washington, paced by powerful Red Gashart in his third winning race at Poughkeepsie, whipped California by two lengths in 18 minutes 53.3 seconds. This was no surprise, for these same huskies had beaten the Bears by an even greater margin two months ago, when they smashed all records for the Oakland (Calif.) Estuary three-mile course.

What was almost unbelievable about this race was the vast gap between the two westerners, who among them have won this race eight times in the last nine years, and the best the east could offer. By the end of the first mile and a half the two boats from the Pacific coast, then locked in a bow-and-bow duel, already had a length of open water on Cornell. At the finish three lengths separated the Ithacans, first of the eastern eights to finish, from California.

CORNELL THIRD

California's time in second place was 19:02.3, back of them the order was Cornell, 19:14.6; Syracuse, 19:18.9; Princeton, 19:23.4; Wisconsin, making a surprisingly fine showing for the lightest boat on the river, 19:29.4; Rutgers, racing here for the first time and also giving a handsome account of itself, 19:29.8; Massachusetts Tech, 19:32.8, and Columbia, whose No. 2 man collapsed in the last quarter-mile and was "out" in the boat as it crossed the line, 19:35.5.

California's junior varsity beat Washington by a length and a half. Cornell was third. In the

BUT WEST AND EAST AGREE WHEN IT COMES TO CHOOSING BREAKFAST! It's a fact! In three successive years, independent investigators have asked more than 5000 housewives, living in every part of the Dominion, what cereal was the family favourite. Now your family will be no exception. They'll enjoy Kellogg's rich, mellow flavour, too! And that is important because breakfast eaten with appetite is easier to digest. Kellogg's are grand, too, as a between-meal or bedtime snack.

Cocktails, Songs, Speeches Open Gyro Convention

Most of the 500 Gyros registered for the 25th annual convention in Victoria, the largest in the history of the club, celebrated the first night of the week's conference last evening with a cocktail party, dinner, stunt exhibition by various clubs represented, a viewing of the Victoria Girls' Drill Team in action, a diving and swimming act in the Crystal Garden and a dance.

The main attraction was the dinner, where the carefree vacationists sang club songs, patriotic airs and listened to an inspiring address by Capt. Elmore Philpott, M.C.

Introduced by Major H. C. Holmes, the speaker stressed the need for winning the peace after this war is finished. He told the Americans present that it was up to their country to back a democratic and everlasting peace, because the United States was the only country in the world with enough power to do so. "For God's sake, whatever you do about the war, do something about the peace," Capt. Philpott said.

SCRAPPED WARSHIPS

"We have arrived at the time of history when the chief cause of war is that there is no law and order between nations as exists within the boundaries of every nation," he stated. "In 1921," the speaker continued, "we, the United States and Great Britain, had naval mastery of the world. We lost it as a result of the Washington Naval Treaty of that year when we scrapped our warships, the ships that would have made impossible Hitler's threat on the north Atlantic."

He mentioned that after this great depreciation in naval strength the Fascists marched on Rome, the first stepping stone toward the world menace of today. It was being continued in an attempted march on London, and if it were successful, Capt. Philpott warned, North America would be the last survivor to fight for the cause of freedom. He described such a turn of events as a "Custer's last stand among the nations."

The speaker then told his Canadian and American audience that freedom would survive if the people of this hemisphere awakened to realities and faced them: "In the next few weeks," he said, "actions or inactions will have decided our destiny and our children's destiny."

INTERNATIONAL POLICE

An international police force was advocated to safeguard the destinies of the world after the war. He said that Britain and the United States would lay the foundation for democratic government all over the world. Capt. Philpott added that he saw no difficulty in forming a union of the two greatest democracies, and, when the unfortified "no-line" between the States and Canada was lifted, it should be wiped out for all men, regardless of race or creed.

Howard C. Smith, Gyro International President, thanked the speaker, emphasizing the urgency for speed, and hoping that the peace would be won at last.

In an impressive ceremony, the American clubs of District 4, in which Victoria is included, presented the banners of America and Britain to the local club D. Behm of the Vancouver, Washington, group, and leading candidate for governor of the district, made the presentation speech. W. Clark accepting the token of international good will on behalf of this city's organization.

Major H. C. Holmes extended an official welcome to the visitors from across the line from the Victoria Gyros, and Alderman Archie Willis, on behalf of Mayor Andrew McGavin, gave the civic welcome to the Americans.

Louis Glazan arranged the dinner, and the diners were piped to their seats by four members of the Argyle and Sutherland Cadets' pipe band.

STUNTS

At 9 the conventionists left the Empress Hotel to participate in an evening of fun and relaxation at the Crystal Garden. In the lower ballroom, out-of-town clubs presented stunts, specially arranged for the occasion. The Vancouver act, the birth of the Gyro Club in the maternity ward of a hospital, received the most laughs.

Prior to the dance upstairs, which started at 11.30, the Victoria Girls' Drill Team, fresh from new triumphs at the Portland Rose Festival, staged one of its intricate drill numbers, the complicated manoeuvres drawing rounds of applause from the visitors. Two divers from the Y.M.C.A., Ted Rau and Hugh Reston, gave exhibitions of fancy and comic diving. A couple of out-of-town Gyros also cavorted in and around the pool, neglecting to shed their suits.

The dancing continued until 1 o'clock this morning.

Today the Gyros golfed at Colwood and went after the big fish at Brentwood after one and a half hour business session in the morning. The ladies toured Butchart's Gardens. This evening all conventionists will go to Colwood to participate in a salmon barbecue and entertainment at the golf clubhouse.

Polish Prisoners To Fight Germans

LONDON (CP)—A high-ranking neutral source here said today negotiations are under way in London to liberate 300,000 Polish soldier prisoners in Russia to fight against the Germans.

This source added that progress is being made despite Russia's original objection to the plan, said to have been advanced first by the Poles.

The prisoners include many officers—including some generals—and skilled troops, most of whom have had training with modern implements of war, this source pointed out.

He said the Polish government in London is confident that if liberated the prisoners would turn their whole-hearted effort against the Nazis.

He said the Soviet, however, was not entirely convinced that soldiers long interned in Russia might not prefer fighting the Germans under British command rather than Russian.

This, he continued, was the hitch of the moment, with the Russians trying to find some way for the Polish prisoners to reach other war theatres if it proves unworkable to have them fight under Russian command.

"Russia," this source added, "is in no desperate need of manpower, but she does need expert and skilled commanders. There are many of these among the Polish prisoners."

He said these generals and other officers, in addition to being good leaders and trained in the use of modern implements of war, know the terrain where the fighting now is going on.

"The fact they are prisoners," he said, "does not mean they are not good soldiers, and the Russians understand this."

Keating School closing exercises were held in the school grounds.

May Polson, president of the Junior Red Cross of the school, gave her annual report in which she noted the number of meetings and the type held throughout the year.

Rosemary Hirsch, treasurer, gave an account of the money raised toward the soldiers' fund, crippled children, refugee children of Britain and the local senior Red Cross unit.

Norma Whiteley, chairman of the Junior Red Cross in Division 2, gave a report on the work which the junior children had accomplished to help the Junior Red Cross and the War Savings drive. In the school the total War Savings until the end of May amounted to over $58. Miss C. MacNab, principal of the school, welcomed the parents and friends and thanked them for their co-operation throughout the year. Awards were given in the form of War Savings Stamps to the following children in Division 1: Good health habits, Shirley Bate; courtesy and thoughtfulness of others, May Polson; good play habits, Robert Johnson; good work habits, Olive Polson; regularity and punctuality in attendance, Doreen Butler; writing and neat habits, Gertrude Mar; best activity work, Annie Joe; general proficiency, Wilmer Mitchell, and best improvement, Rosemary Hirsch.

Miss J. Maddock presented the awards to the pupils of Division 2 as follows: General proficiency, Della Johnson; regular and punctual attendance, Irene Robinson; general improvement, Billy Richardson; good work habits, Jenny Joe; proficiency in music, Norma Whiteley; proficiency in art, Dick Patterson; good social habits, June Wheeler, and good health habits, Joan Mitchell.

A program consisting of short plays, dances, recitations and songs was arranged by the pupils after which tea was served by the older girls.

Mrs. Hugh MacKenzie, president of the Society for the Preservation of Native Plants, and Mrs. J. W. Church were also present. The former gave a short talk in which she congratulated the pupils of Keating school for their interesting exhibit at the nature display in the museum. She mentioned that many visitors from all parts of the continent, had visited the display and signed the visitors' book which she showed contained over 400 names. She promised continued support from the society next year and special speakers will be brought out to the school to instruct the children on nature activities.

A display of the children's work was shown in the classrooms through which the visitors were invited to pass.

Crafts Club Has Birthday Party

Through the courtesy of the British Columbia Government Travel Bureau a glimpse of the actual bombings of London and Dover was shown in two sound films presented by Clarence Ferris to the members and friends of the Government Printing Crafts and Social Club last night at Spencer's. Mr. Ferris also showed some interesting travel pictures, including a tour to the Valley of Lakes in central British Columbia.

Other pleasing items of interest on the program included orchestra selections by the King's Printer orchestra, magical stunts and marionettes by John Gow; Doug Ritchie, accompanied by R. D. Mylrea, sang the "Kashmiri Song" and "I Hear You Calling."

The club president, Harold McCaw, president, Frank Humphrey, chairman of the war efforts committee, gave a report and outlined several activities for the future.

At the conclusion of the program the members and guests adjourned to the dining-room, where a birthday supper was served. It being the sixth anniversary of the club, Charles F. Banfield, King's Printer, cut the cake and congratulated the club on reaching its sixth anniversary. Dugald Campbell of Vancouver, western representative of the Canadian Linotype Co., was a guest. G. Sidney Carr moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Ferris and the assisting artists.

HOW TO BEAT CONSTIPATION

More than one prominent physician has described constipation as the curse of mankind and especially womanhood, as indeed it is.

Constipation is so unnecessary. Nature gave every man and woman the muscle mechanism for thorough and punctual elimination. That mechanism is still there even in the person who hasn't been "regular" for years. What it needs is exercise—work—for only by exercise, and work can it strengthen itself.

I positively assert that if you will eat one full meal a day from any one of my three natural whole-grain cereals Dr. Jackson Meal (formerly Roman Meal), Bekus Puddy and Lishus, and make other meals of simple, sensible foods, you can strengthen the muscles and give it the power to work. If you are interested in this subject, send for my free booklet "A Glorious Achievement". Address: Robt. G. Jackson, M.D., 77 Vine Ave., Toronto, 12-41.

CANADIAN NICKEL

IS A STAUNCH ALLY OF THE EMPIRE CAUSE

Forty acres of surging industrial activity! Forty acres of crushers, grinders, roasting and melting furnaces; of steam hammers raining eight-ton blows on white-hot ingots; of five-foot ribbons of "Monel" sheet curling from the rolling mills; of miles of rods, tubing, wire and other shapes! Such is the Huntington Works of The International Nickel Company, strategically located in West Virginia because the surrounding industrial districts comprised the world's greatest market for "Monel" and Nickel, and because an abundance of low-cost, sulphur-free natural gas was available there.

Today this mill and its mother mines, smelters and refineries in Canada are sending an ever-increasing flow of Nickel to industrial Canada, United States and Britain. Since the front line of battle is in our industries, the 20,000 employees of The International Nickel Company take their places proudly alongside our armed forces. In time of peace, Canadian Nickel assists industry to achieve increased efficiency and economy. In war, it is of vital help in the Empire's drive to victory.

Sports Shorts From Britain

LONDON (CP)—The King scored his fourth racing victory of the season when his brilliant two-year-old Myrobell won the Salisbury Plate at Salisbury. It was the colt's third successive victory. Hailed as the find of the year, Myrobell is being groomed for next year's Derby, and if the horse continues its fine performance it will be one of the favorites for the classic.

An age-old tradition was shattered at St. Andrews when the town council agreed to allow Sunday games, including golf and tennis. St. Andrews always has been a stronghold of Sabbath observance, but the council voted 5 to 4 in favor of sport after a number of women spoke of the need of recreation for men in the services.

At the same meeting the council decided not to stage the Eden golf tournament this year. Largest amateur meeting in Great Britain, this tournament usually draws 300 to 400 entries.

R. T. (Tim) Threlfell, 55, former horse trainer and jockey, died at Malton. Threlfell served his apprenticeship with Hon. George Lambton, rode and trained in Belgium, and returned to England in 1906 to ride for R. Robson's Knaresborough Stable in national hunt races. He became trainer at Danby House, Malton, in 1925.

Poffenberger Out For Three Months

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Cletus (Boots) Poffenberger's bid for a return to the major leagues was dealt a terrific blow yesterday when the voluble Nashville pitcher was suspended 90 days for throwing a ball at an umpire.

Southern Association President Trammel Scott announced the suspension—which will carry through the 1941 season—yesterday soon after receiving a telegraphic report from Umpire Ed. Hoffman. Hoffman said the right-hander struck him with the ball in climax to an argument during Tuesday night's game which Nashville lost to New Orleans. No fine was attached.

Cobb Wins First Match With Ruth

NEWTON, Mass. (AP)—Ty Cobb, the scientific baseball immortal, called upon old-time finesse yesterday to defeat the slam-banging Babe Ruth, his fellow hall-of-famer, by a 3 and 2 margin in the opening round of their "grudge" charity golf matches before a 2,000 gallery.

Cobb used his accurate putter to humble the Babe, despite the fact the 60-homer king out-drove him on every hole. Ruth's longer-range slugging off the tees put him 2 up when they reached the fourth hole. Here the more determined Ty rallied in such sturdy fashion that he reached the turn 1 up, even though he was 43 out, six over par, as was his opponent. The first four of the inward holes were halved, then Cobb doubled his lead by blasting out a trap to within three feet of the pin for his par-four on the 14th and he dropped a 10-foot putt on the 15th to extend his winning margin to three holes. The match ended when the 16th was halved.

"It was a great pleasure to play with him and a much greater one to beat him. Just think, I now can tell my children that I beat Babe Ruth at something," said Cobb.

"Don't get too excited about it, Ty," Ruth warned. "You know we play again at Fresh Meadow in Flushing, N.Y., on Friday and if I can't give you a pasting there I'll be willing to quit-golf."

Man Cleared Of Maniac Slaying

SEATTLE (AP)—Police today released a former Nebraska asylum inmate after R. F. Bull, salesman, said he did not resemble the elderly abductor who wounded him, then fled after slaying Edward La Fountain and wounding Mrs. La Fountain near here Monday.

The police this afternoon continued to search for the maniac who killed La Fountain.

The Nebraskan had been arrested as residents of the north end of the city kept sheriff's deputies and police on the jump with a variety of reports, ranging from mysterious screams heard in the night to reports of mysterious men prowling half a dozen different neighborhoods. So many civilians joined the manhunt on an amateur basis that the sheriff's office appealed for less such help and asked private automobiles to stay away from districts where suspects were reported.

CAME TO CONVENTION BY YACHT—These six men came to the Victoria Gyro convention from their homes in Vancouver, Wash., and Portland, Ore., on the 45-foot yawl Nimble, last Sunday afternoon, arriving in Victoria yesterday at 1.30. They are, from left to right, Dr. Carl Wagner, Dr. J. Myles and Blake Johnston of Vancouver, and Gerry Shaw, Bill Dorsey, owner of the trim ship and Verne Savage. Dick Behm of Vancouver, not in picture, also sailed here on Nimble. When the Nimble arrived she bore the sign Shanghai Gyro Club.

Public May See Trade Classes

Military authorities in Victoria have invited the general public to inspect army trade training classes, such as the one shown above. In this classroom scene, a young soldier is working on an automobile engine in the school for motor mechanics. The mechanics' course is held in the old King's Road School, and like the carpentry and concrete classes held at Victoria High School, will be open for public inspection on Friday afternoons from 1 to 4.

Blacksmith, instrument mechanics and machinist classes are held at Central Junior High School, where the above picture of two prospective blacksmiths was taken. These classes will be open to the public on Friday evenings from 6 to 10. It is in these classes that men are being equipped to meet needs of modern mechanized warfare, besides learning trades which will prove an asset after the war. Other local military establishments will be thrown open to the public next Saturday, which is to be observed as Army Day throughout the Dominion. Establishments to be open to the public on Saturday are the Bay Street Armory, Gordon Head Officers' Training Centre, Parson's Bridge Camp and Signal Centre, Work Point Barracks, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Esquimalt Military Hospital from 2 to 4.30 p.m.

WOULD-BE MASCOT—The fact that army life is a long way off for him failed to discourage one boy Tuesday from trotting around Royal Athletic Park with the 1st Battalion, Irish Fusiliers, rehearsing for their show last night. The scantily-clad five-year-old is shown above standing rigidly at attention and entranced by the shiny drum of Lance-Corporal Corindo Pegoraro, Vancouver.

VICTORIA BOY WINS WINGS—Leading Aircraftman D. L. Price, 634 Michigan Street, is congratulated by Group-Captain W. A. Curtis.

USE CONVOYS IF NECESSARY—Before the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Washington, Sergeant C. York called for immediate all-out aid to Britain. "If that means that we have to use convoys, then we should use them," he added. The Tennessee mountaineer became one of the outstanding heroes of the last war by killing 25 Germans and capturing 132 others singlehanded. He was invited as principal speaker at Memorial Day ceremonies in Arlington National cemetery. Sgt. York is shown as he was in 1918 and as he is now.

CAUGHT SHORT—Chicago elevated train crashes through guard rail at dead end station and dangles over street. Cause: Falling brakes. Result: No injuries to passengers.

CLEVER POSTER WORK—Thirteen-year-old Lillian Kennedy, who has just been promoted to Grade 8 at Quadra Street School, displays a poster she has made for the school. Lillian did the work under the supervision of her art teacher, J. T. Bruce. The clever young art student made a poster, using the head of Churchill alone, for the recent War Savings poster contest. She was asked by George H. Green, principal of the school, if she would make another poster as a record of her work for the school. The request resulted in the poster, showing both Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt.

$12,000 WORTH OF DEVASTATION—Two torpedoes slowed up the Bismarck, two more brought her to a stop, and two more sent her to the bottom, proclaims the sign on this torpedo being driven past the reviewing stand by a sailor in the King's birthday parade at Halifax. But, the sign adds, a torpedo like this one costs $12,000. This is one of the war weapons that the Victory Loan is intended to supply. The intrepid sailor driving the carriage carrying the missile, seems not in the least concerned about the possibility of a traffic collision.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

DEMAND of today's baseball public for batting power was demonstrated to us Sunday while attending a pair of Coast League games at Seattle. The two exhibitions produced some real first class baseball. In our opinion, with tight pitching, sparkling fielding plays and just enough base knocks to make matters interesting. The small total of seven runs were scored in the two battles. We had made the trip to see some first class baseball and the afternoon's entertainment was perfect.

But not so for the majority of the crowded grandstand and bleachers. Throughout both games we heard no little grumbling because of the absence of heavy hitting. The smart pitching was not appreciated as evidenced by the calls every minute or so for hits. We heard one fan come out with: "This is my first game of the season, and where's all this power the Seattle club has been advertising so much. So far I've seen nothing but a bunch of bat wavers." When pitcher Lloyd Brown hit a home run to win his own game in the second appearance of the teams, this particular fan seemed satisfied. In other words, if a game produces a carload of hits and lots of scoring, the customers go home figuring they got their money's worth. Not for us. We still like to see a pitcher hold the whip hand.

Jo-Jo White is still the most popular member of the Seattle Rainiers. The colorful outfielder really has the fans with him. And he is just the kind of player to hold spectator interest. He comes up with fielding plays that make their nerves tingle and his base-running is something one has to see to appreciate. White steals bases by using his head. It is not his exceptional speed, although, mind you, he is no turtle on those paths, that ranks him with the best pluffers in the circuit. The minute White steps on first base he is a continual source of worry to the opposing pitcher. Jo-Jo has that knack of being able to outguess the hurlers as demonstrated by the long lead he takes off the bag and the way he weaves back and forth towards first and second. He gets caught, now and then, but a catcher has to make a perfect throw to nab him. When White digs in his spikes and starts for the keystone bay any advantage possible is with him.

For those rabid local followers of the Seattle club, via Leo Lassen and the radio, we give a few interesting records hung up in the Coast League by Sound City clubs and players:

Most stolen bases, lifetime—Billy Lane, 468.

Highest fielding percentage by outfielder—Pete Scott, 103 games, 205 chances, 1,000.

Fewest errors by team—Seattle, 1938, 165.

Most stolen bases, inning—Seattle vs. Hollywood, June 12, 1931, 6.

Most times stealing home—One inning, Seattle vs. Hollywood, June 12, 1931, 2.

Most games without error—Marty Callaghan, Seattle, 1927, 153.

Most chances accepted, game—Bill Lawrence, May 7, 1940, vs. Los Angeles, 11.

Most putouts, game—Bill Lawrence, May 7, 1940, 11; by catcher, Dashwood vs. Portland, July 8, 1935, 19.

Most base hits, one game—Dick Gyselman, August 20, 1932, while playing with Missions, 7.

And here are the Coast League pitching records:

Highest percentage, 875, Fay Thoms, Los Angeles, 1934.

Most victories, 39, Eustace Newton, Los Angeles, 1904.

Most victories, 39, Harry Vickers, 1906.

Most defeats, 31, Ike Butler, Portland, 1904.

Most innings pitched, 526, Harry Vickers, Seattle, 1906.

Most strikeouts, 408, Harry Vickers, Seattle, 1906.

Best earned run average, 1.56, E. A. Love, Los Angeles, 1914.

Most hit batsmen, 31, George Boice, Oakland, 1909.

Most wild pitches, 22, George Groom, Portland, 1907.

Most shutouts, 14, Sylvanus Gregg, Portland, 1910.

Most won in succession, 16, Frank Browning, San Francisco, 1909.

Most games won, lifetime, 295, Frank Shellenback.

Northwest Golf Loses 'Stars'

Black Easy Winner

SPOKANE (AP)—Golf favorites came through, but the crowd favorites did not fare so well in first round play of the Pacific Northwest men's amateur golf tournament here yesterday.

Among the casualties were the two Hollywoodites, Bing Crosby, the actor-crooner-golfer, and Jimmy McLarnin of Vancouver, B.C., the former world welterweight boxing champion. Crosby lost, 3 and 2, to Marsh Hammond, young Spokane municipal links star, and McLarnin lost, 4 and 3, to Harry Umbinetti of Seattle, a former national publicx competitor.

Crosby and Hammond were all square at the turn, but Bing's putter went bang on the second nine, and his game generally was more ragged than during the previous two days.

McLarnin lost, the first five holes to Umbinetti, then settled down and wound up with a 76, but Umbinetti was crowding par all the way and the little Canadian battler could not overcome those early hole losses.

Marvin "Bud" Ward of Spokane, the former national amateur champion, shot sub-par golf to defeat young Al Appleton of Spokane, 2 and 1.

Medalist Louie Jennings of Portland had a close squeak in defeating unheralded Phil Namma of Seattle, 2 and 1. Jennings was 1 down at the turn, but a 34 on the second nine pulled him ahead. Jennings had an approximate 74 to Namma's 76.

BLACK COASTS

Ken Black of Vancouver, B.C., the Canadian amateur champion, was 5 up at the end of the first eight holes and coasted in to a 4 and 3 victory over H. V. Valentine of Spokane.

Harry Givan of Seattle, 1935-36 champion, was 5 up going to the 12th in his match against Lieut. John H. Payne of Fort Douglas, Utah, then was lucky to win 1 up.

WOMEN'S PLAY

SPOKANE (AP)—Marian McDougall of Portland, who has held the Pacific Northwest women's golf championship more times than any other woman, was forced to the 20th hole yesterday before she could close out Mrs. Joe Pedicord, 1 up, in the second round of the women's P.N.G.A. tournament.

The pair played all even, 43 for the first nine and 42 for the second. Twice before the 20th Marlan had chances to win the match, but shying putts that left the sturdy Portlander talking to herself kept Mrs. Pedicord in the running.

In the first match of the day, Darol Gleason, 18, and Betty Jean Rucker, 16, continued their Spokane "home town" feud in a match which Miss Gleason won 2 and 1.

Betty Jameson, national champion from San Antonio, Texas, continued to turn in the most impressive wins of the tournament by defeating Mrs. Angie Parkhurst of San Francisco 7 and 6.

Mrs. Mary Mozell Wagner, defending champion from Portland, toured 13 holes without a flaw to defeat Mrs. W. D. Mader of Spokane 6 and 5.

Jack Naylor May Hurl for Locals

Tacoma Chiefs, smart Washington semi-pro baseball club, scheduled to play here Saturday in two games against the Victoria All-Stars, have played in the Denver state semi-pro tournament for the last seasons. The club is managed by Garry Robinson. The games are scheduled for 2:30 and 6 at Athletic Park.

Officials of the Victoria club announced today that Jack Naylor, smooth-working Chemsunian southpaw, may work on the afternoon game. Other hurlers available will include Tommy Musgrave, Les Stobo, Russ Richardson, Stan Davies and Ritchie Nicol.

With the addition of several new players the Victoria All-Stars are reported to be a stronger club than last season.

Tomorrow night at the park Pitzer & Nex and Tillmans will meet at 6 in the final game of the McGavin Cup series.

Opening game of the Junior Baseball League will be played at Beacon Hill tomorrow evening at 6:15 with St. Louis College opposing the Fernwood Giants. The former will be the home club.

Killarney L Wins Handicap

Smashing victory scored by Victoria's smart thoroughbred in the $1,500 added western Canada handicap at Winnipeg Saturday is pictured above. Owned by W. H. Smith of this city and trained by the well-known Ken (Doc) Darbyshire, Killarney L was the handicap champion of British Columbia tracks last season. In the top picture the six-year-old is seen romping home by three and a half lengths over Contributor and Ebony Moon. The lower picture shows Killarney L being decorated by Mrs. A. B. Shearer after the race. Darbyshire is holding the horse with jockey Johnny Craigmyle up.

Set Dominion Day Events

Baseball, Boxla and Regatta on Tuesday

Swims Here

Starting at 10:30 in the morning with an intercity ball game between Vancouver Patricias and the Victoria All-Stars, Victoria's Dominion Day program will provide adequate interest for the city's sports-minded, according to the schedule for the day released by the celebration committee.

The ball game will be the first of two listed. The second is scheduled at 3, with the winner of the series taking the City of Victoria Dominion Day Baseball Trophy, a cup two feet in height.

In addition to the actual games, ball throwing and base running contests are listed, with three prizes in each event.

Also scheduled in the morning is a boxla tilt at the Victoria Sports Centre between local juvenile teams.

That game will be the first of three during the day. In the evening Ted Menzies-Bays will play the Nanaimo Cal-A-Des in the feature attraction, prior to which Bob McInnes' undefeated McLean's Bakery will meet an all-star club chosen from the Owl Drug, Douglas Tire and Heaney's teams in the junior division. The junior game is billed for 7 with the senior tussle an hour and one-half later. Both will be played at the Sports Centre.

REGATTA PROGRAM

As the aquatic feature of the day the committee has arranged a rowing and canoe regatta with through-Victoria races listed as the highlights. Vancouver oarsmen have been invited to contest the doubles and fours in the long faces, while outside entries will also be received for novelty events on the program scheduled to start at the Gorge, opposite "The Free," at 2:30. Special races have been included in the meet for members of the services.

Softball Scores

The lowly Civics, basement dwellers in the local C section softball race, came out for a breath of fresh air last night when they defeated Hudson's Bay 11 to 9. It wasn't until the 10th inning that the city men broke the 9 to 9 deadlock and romped home victors.

Not showing their batting power until the last four innings Douglas Tires, formerly Spencers, opened up in the late stages to swamp Hickman Ty 21 to 8. Hunt's Garage biffed the ball all over the lot to beat Hudson's Bay 28 to 5 in a women's league fixture.

Wilson & Cabellu tangled with K.V.'s in an exhibition game. The motor house men finished on the short end of a 17 to 13 score.

Sporting several new players on their line-up, Five C's beat Spencer's cricketers for the first time this season when they met yesterday at Beacon Hill.

The churchmen batted 138 for seven wickets while storemen were retired with 32 runs.

Twamley and Clarke started batting for Five C's, Twamley scoring 38 runs before Burn bowled him out, and Clarke scoring 57 before he was caught out by Turner on a bowl from Burn.

Harper with 17 and Hurn with 11 were the next highest batters for the church team.

Spencer's batters were off. They could not do a thing with the bowling of Twamley and Gillespie. Highest batter was Turner with eight. Baker was next with four not out.

For Spencer's, Burn took six wickets for 27 runs.

Members of the Oak Bay Blue Devils, champion junior Canadian football team last season, held a dinner in Terry's Monday in honor of their coach, Bob Fulton, who will leave for eastern Canada soon to join another branch of the R.C.A.F. to that which he belongs at present.

Fulton, a popular member of the Three-V champions, Revelers, last season, guided the Blue Devils to the title in the junior race. The large Sons of Canada Trophy which the team won was displayed at the head table.

Sean Howard, manager of the junior champs, acted as chairman. Short talks were given by coach George Deacon of the Revelers; Jim Smith, coach of the V.H.S. Alumni junior team, and Sid Anderson, coach of the National-Rollers squad as well as other officials of the league and players.

Fulton was presented with a championship emblem to wear on a sport jacket presented him by the team earlier in the year.

Roy McKay, who acted as coach of the team when Fulton was transferred to another station in the air force near the end of league play, was named team captain for the coming season.

Homer Runs Streak to 37 Games

For the first time since the season was in its infancy New York Yankees are in first place in the American League today and now the pressure is on Cleveland Indians.

The Yanks captured the lead yesterday by bumping St. Louis Browns 7 to 5 while third-place Boston Red Sox raided the Tribe 7 to 2.

Joe DiMaggio led the bombing in New York with a two-run homer that extended his hitting streak to 37 games, four short of the record, and made it 20 consecutive contests in which one or more of the Yankees have hit home runs.

It was the Yanks' 13th triumph in 16 games. In Boston the Indians were set back on their heels by old Lefty Grove, who pitched seven-hit ball for the 298th victory of his long career. Ted Williams rapped a two-run homer in the fourth and his mates put together a flock of doubles for five runs in the seventh. It was Cleveland's seventh defeat in 11 games.

TRIPLE STEAL

The best one-game pitching show of the season was staged at Washington yesterday when John Rigney and Sid Hudson struggled for 12 scoreless innings before Chicago White Sox downed Senators 2 to 0 in the 13th. Until the 13th none of the White Sox, except Taft Wright, had made a hit. He had made three without avail. Then in the 13th Hudson weakened, gave up a single, a double and two walks to force in a run and the Sox sprung the first triple steal of the year for their other tally. Rigney kept six safeties scattered.

Philadelphia Athletics nosed out Detroit Tigers 5 to 4 with a triple by Al Brame scoring two runs and deciding the game in the fourth frame.

In the National League St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers both won, preserving the half-game margin between them. Ernie White held Boston Braves to seven hits and fanned nine as the Cardinals coasted to a 6 to 2 decision after tallying five times in the first two frames.

The Dodgers squeezed past Pittsburgh Pirates 5 to 4 with two runs in the eighth inning on a single and two doubles.

New York Giants cleaned up on Chicago Cubs 4 to 1 with three runs in the first inning on Hank Danning's triple and steady, eighth hit hurling by rookie Bob Carpenter.

Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from the Phillies 8 to 3 and 5 to 1. Elmer Riddle kept 11 hits spaced effectively in the first game for his seventh victory without defeat. Monte Pearson, former American League ace, showed five-hit hurling in the nightcap for his first win in the senior circuit.

SEATTLE MOVES UP

It's beginning to look Sacramento is coming down as fast as it went up. The Pacific Coast League baseball leaders took their second straight defeat at the hands of second-division Hollywood last night, 3 to 2.

Hi Bithorn, the Stars' Puerto Rican speedballer, held Sacramento in check for eight innings, but had to pitch tight ball to choke off a fighting Solon upsurge in the last inning.

Seattle jumped into second place in the league over San Diego by walloping San Francisco, 12 to 3, in a free-hitting contest.

Oakland swept by San Diego for the second straight time, winning an evenly-pitched battle, 3 to 2. Portland failed to match Los Angeles' two-run effort in the tenth, and fell, 5 to 4.

Answers Alderman Gadsden

Rent Act Aimed At Profiteering

While certain landlords suffered from rental control regulations owing to the fact rents were depressed on their properties when the ruling went into force, the legislation was necessary to prevent rent profiteering, Mr. Justice W. M. Martin, rentals administrator, said in effect in a letter received by Alderman B. J. Gadsden today.

The communication was a reply to one from the alderman to H. B. McKinnon, chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board in which Alderman Gadsden drew attention to certain injustices arising from rigid enforcement of the Rent Act.

"There is no doubt that at many points in Canada rents were still depressed in the month of January, 1940 (the basic date for rent pegging in Victoria), as compared with the high rental period of some previous years," Mr. Justice Martin's letter stated. "I am sure you will agree, however, that it would never do to allow rentals to revert to the levels of the inflated period of 15 years ago and this is exactly what many owners at every point in the country had in mind to do," it continued.

SUBSTANTIAL JUSTICE DONE

"While it may be that injustice has been done to some owners at every point where rent control has been put into effect, I am satisfied that substantial justice has been done to the majority because I believe that the majority were already obtaining fair rentals on any fair present value of their properties. Moreover, while the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has not taken the position at points not under control that an owner is not entitled to some fair return, I do think that one may very reasonably say that no owner should be permitted to increase rents where a demand for accommodation has arisen due to war activity and I feel quite convinced that at the majority of places in Canada any demand which has arisen for accommodation has been caused by war effort. Our desire, of course, is to protect the rents of the laboring men, particularly those engaged in industry, the lower-salaried classes and the families of enlisted men. I feel quite confident that had it not been for rent control exorbitant rentals would have been demanded at every centre in Canada.

"While I am not altogether satisfied with the attitude of many owners towards the control of rents, I believe that as a little time passes, the majority of them will agree that the action taken was proper and has been necessary," the letter concluded.

Druggists to Choose 1941 President

Quick response of British Columbia druggists to a fund for relief of English druggists, who have been bombed out, was praised before the annual convention of the B.C. Pharmaceutical Association convention in Vancouver by W. M. McGill of Kelowna.

The fund, started less than two weeks ago, now totals $575.

The 1941 president will be chosen at the first meeting of the councillors, who include C. W. Burr of Victoria.

Food Costs Up 12% Since War's Outbreak

The cost of staple foods has gone up 12 per cent since war broke out, according to the latest official calculations.

An index of family food costs compiled by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics for Vancouver as the key city of British Columbia rose from 100 in August, 1939, to 112 in April, 1941.

The index shows the general cost of living has gone up from 100 to 106.5. The cost of living budget includes 31 per cent for foods, 5 per cent for fuel and light, 20 per cent for rent, 11 per cent for clothing, 10 per cent for home furnishings and 23 per cent for miscellaneous expenses.

Rents, according to the Vancouver index, were down 6 per cent from August, 1939, fuel and lighting up 8.8 per cent, clothing up 12.9 per cent, home furnishings and services up 7.6 per cent and miscellaneous up 1.1 per cent.

The cost of living increase at Vancouver is approximately the same as Toronto and Winnipeg. Montreal index was up 10 per cent, Halifax 7.8 per cent, Saint John 8.5 per cent, Saskatoon 9 per cent and Edmonton 5.7 per cent.

A comparison of retail food prices in Victoria between June of last year and June this year shows advances in numerous items, largely due to war taxes and market conditions.

Here are prices on some items sold at one large store:

	June 1940	June 1941
Bread, a loaf	7	8
Bread, flour, 24 lbs.	84	95
Butter, lb.	29	37
Granulated sugar, 21 lbs.	1.43	1.63
Eggs, per doz.	19	26
Cheese, per lb.	21	24
Dried green peas, lb.	6 1/2	8 1/2
Evaporated peaches, lb.	19	22
Plum jam, tin	35	43
Assorted jam, tin	39	48
Honey, tin	49	63
Syrup, 2 lb. tin	16	23
Tea, one variety	48	53
Corned beef, tin	15	20
Beef, roast, lb.	25	30
Beef, pot roast	18	22
Beef, shoulder	15	19
Veal roast	23	35
Hamburger	16	19
Bacon, side, sliced, 8-oz.	15	22
Onions, lb.	8 1/2	12 1/2

In clothing the main increase has been in woolen goods. One brand of all-wool tweed topcoats for men went up from $19.95 to $24.50. An English garbierne raincoat went up from $16.95 to $27.50. Rayon and wool mixture stockings for men went up from 29 to 49 cents. An imported tweed topcoat for women went up from $22.50 to $29.95. Most items of clothing are little changed.

No Change Made In Rent Rules

Apart from a slight alteration in administration of the act, rental control regulations have not been changed, Judge H. H. Shandley, chairman of the local control board, stated today.

His remarks were made to contradict an opinion that has gained ground here to the effect that publication of a pamphlet outlining the regulations in simple form constituted a change in policy.

Henceforth, he noted, hearings will be heard by a judge in chambers instead of a board of three, but the rules covering rent changes are not altered.

B.C. Loan Response Gratifying

Congratulations to Major Austin Taylor, chairman, and Mr. Lyall Fraser, vice-chairman, and all others associated in active work on the Victory Loan campaign in British Columbia and the Yukon were voiced today by Premier Pattullo on his return from a tour of northern and central British Columbia.

The Premier, who was honorary chairman, said: "I would like also to express great satisfaction with the response of the people of British Columbia and Yukon in subscribing to the loan. I understand that British Columbia and Yukon lead all Canada in per capita subscription. This is indeed gratifying."

The Premier's trip took him to Prince Rupert, where he was nominated again as the Liberal candidate, through to Prince George, the Cariboo and Lillooet districts.

He remarked that he had used four methods of transportation, boat to Prince Rupert, train to Prince George, motor car to Vancouver and airplane to Victoria last night.

"We didn't have airplanes in the old days in the north," the Premier said, adding with a smile: "We had other means of transportation, though. I did a good deal of walking between towns then, and on one occasion had to swim a river."

During the afternoon vocal songs were rendered by Miss Honor Benson and Mr. Thomas Kelway, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Warn, and piano selections were played by Miss Pamela Butcher.

Vancouver Artist To Be Married

Of interest in eastern and western Canada, in California and abroad, is the announcement formally made yesterday in Vancouver by Mrs. Stuart Ross of the engagement of her only daughter, Stuart, granddaughter of the late Augustus Power, K.C., I.S.O., of Ottawa, to Lieut. George Duval Sherwood, Canadian Grenadier Guards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Sherwood of Montreal and grandson of the late Chief Justice George Duval of Ottawa.

Acclaimed as one of the most brilliant of younger Canadian artists, the daughter of Mrs. Ross and the late Dr. Stuart Ross of Vancouver, and the niece of Col. H. S. Tobin, D.S.O., of Vancouver, Miss Ross is a former student of Crofton House School and the Vancouver School of Art, later attending the California School of Fine Arts, where she was awarded a scholarship.

Several years prior to the war, Mrs. Ross and her daughter went abroad, where the latter continued her art studies in London and Paris and added further laurels to her career. On three different occasions Miss Ross was invited to exhibit at the Paris Salon. She was honored by having three of her paintings hung at the Salon des Artistes in California, and in '36 one of her canvases was shown in the B.C. Artists' Exhibit.

Miss Ross excels in her portrait studies and has carried out a number of important commissions of this nature, particularly since returning to this continent at the outbreak of war, following which she spent some time in San Francisco and Vancouver before going east. She is at present

Doesn't Know Why

BERLIN (AP)—P. G. Wodehouse, released from a German internment camp, said, "I really don't know why," when asked why he was released.

"I do know, however," he said, "that some of my German as well as my American friends have been active on my behalf."

Wodehouse is one of about a dozen British subjects, most of whom regularly reside outside Britain, who have been released from prison camps in recent months.

Columbia Broadcasting System said Wodehouse was scheduled to speak on their "World Today" program at 3.45 p.m., P.S.T.

Men in U.S. to Enlist In British Forces

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States government probably will give formal, full-fledged approval within a few days to the enlistment of American men in the British or Chinese war effort, either for actual combat duty or for noncombatant technical work.

The enlistments would be sanctioned officially as service in the interest of national safety.

Informed persons predicted this development would come with issuance by selective service headquarters here of a memorandum to state directors formally directing deferment be given to registrants who wish to volunteer for duty abroad.

A final decision to issue the memorandum has not been made, officials said, but at selective service headquarters it was looked on as a virtually inevitable step after President Roosevelt told his press conference Tuesday that any man who wants to enlist in Britain's or China's fighting forces has a right to do so.

Previously the administration had approved a British drive in the U.S. to recruit several thousand technicians to help manufacture and service Britain's new airplane radiolocator, or to do other expert mechanical duty.

Buildings Erected For Canadian Corps

By ROSS MUNRO

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND (CP)—When new contingents of Canadian troops arrive in the United Kingdom they will find the accommodation and living conditions "tops" by army standards.

In the Canadian Corps area, in the scattered special camps in several parts of England, in London and in Scotland, Canadian soldiers live in billets, barracks, huts and tents.

UNLIKE 1915

For the old soldier, it is a far cry from the mud of Salisbury Plains of the first Great War and the trials of trench warfare on the western front.

At the new Canadian infantry holding unit, some of the finest accommodation in England, outside Royal Air Force stations, has been provided, with huge parade grounds and training areas.

When they move up to regiments in the Corps area, they might live in small towns, billeted in private houses or in homes taken over by the army. Regiments in these locations are the most comfortable of any troops in the field, but during the summer those in tents and huts won't suffer any hardship.

ENGINEERS BUSY

A special unit of the Royal Canadian Engineers has been established, under a colonel from Vancouver, to erect hundreds of new buildings to house the expanding Corps.

Soldiers in London, attached to Canadian military headquarters, generally live in rented rooms or apartments, the extra expense being met by a living allowance.

Danzig area and bombed parts of German-occupied Poland, but the flights were under cover of long nights. Such trips during the summer, involving unescorted daylight flying over German territory, would not be considered, it was said.

REPORT TURKISH SHIP TORPEDOED

NEW YORK (AP)—The Turkish steamship Rifa, carrying officers and men described as the "cream of the Turkish navy and mercantile marine," was torpedoed and sunk by an unidentified submarine last night, Martin Agronsky, NBC reporter, said in a broadcast from Ankara.

He reported 173 of the 201 passengers on the ship were lost. (Reports from Ankara today said there were only 20 known survivors.)

Agronsky said 100 Turkish naval officers and men aboard the Rifa were en route to England "to sail back to Turkey two new destroyers and six submarines."

Survivors said the torpedo broke the ship in two and that only one lifeboat could be launched and in it 28 passengers were saved, the commentator reported.

The Turkish government had made arrangements with both Germany and Italy to insure safe passage of the vessel, he added.

"The incident aroused considerable popular feeling here as the Turkish ship carried an illuminated Turkish flag on her stern and illuminated flags on both her sides," Agronsky said.

The vessel was bound first for Egypt.

Canada Bans 3 Japan Papers

OTTAWA (CP)—Publication of a French language weekly newspaper called "La Voix du Peuple" at Montreal is prohibited in an order issued by Hon. Pierre Casgrain, Secretary of State, and published in an extra edition of the Canada Gazette. The order was made under the Defence of Canada Regulations.

Three Japanese publications have been added to the long list of publications banned from entrance into Canada since the outbreak of war.

They are: Nippon Oyobi Nippon Jin (Japan and the Japanese), a magazine in the Japanese language published in Tokyo, Hokaku Sekai (The Pictorial World), a magazine in the Japanese language, published in Tokyo, and the Osaka Mainichi and Tokyo Nichi Nichi, English edition magazine, published monthly in the Japanese and English languages in Osaka, Japan.

The announcement also made allowance for entry to Canada of L'Etoile (The Star), French language newspaper, published daily at Lowell, Mass.

'Horror Island' Now At Plaza Theatre

Another successful entertainment was chucked up for Universal movie makers, acknowledged leaders in the field of dramatic shockers, when "Horror Island," newest thriller opens at the Plaza Theatre today.

"Horror Island" is the story of a week-end treasure hunt cruise to the one-time hideout of Captain Morgan, the pirate, Dick Foran, Leo Carrillo, and Fuzzy Knight lead the expedition.

Also being shown on the same program as first feature picture is "Lady From Louisiana," starring John Wayne.

'Tunnel of Terror' Serial at the Rio

"The Trail Blazers," which opens today at the Rio Theatre, again demonstrates Republic's unflinching ability to turn out high quality acting stories which will please sophisticated audiences as well as the out-and-out western fans.

Bob Livingston, Bob Steele and Rufe Davis have the tri-starring leads, being billed as the "Three Mesquiteers."

Also starting today, the Rio presents its new serial, "The Green Hornet," starring Gordon Jones. The opening chapter is "The Tunnel of Terror."

'The Lone Wolf' To Open Tomorrow

Warren William, appearing at the Dominion Theatre tomorrow, in Columbia's "The Lone Wolf Takes a Chance," has discovered an improvement on counting sheep when he wants to fall asleep.

William has planned for several years to make a trip to the South Seas on his boat, the Pegasus, but has never found time. So, now, when he goes to bed and is sleepless, he visualizes that cruise.

'Safari' Now Showing At Cadet Theatre

A skillfully contrived story, expertly directed and brilliantly enacted by a splendid cast, makes "Safari," the Paramount drama which stars Douglas Fairbanks Jr. and Madeleine Carroll, and which opens today at the Cadet Theatre, an outstanding screen effort.

CAPITOL THEATRE

"The Devil and Miss Jones," Jean Arthur's starring film, now at the Capitol Theatre, is a tongue-in-cheek social document written in laughter, its message being that rich, wholesome comedy can be evolved from those situations and conditions which seem to assume such vital importance to the average person today.

Battle of Bismarck

Rodney Captain Tells Highlights of Fight

By the Associated Press
Tall, easy-mannered Capt. F. G. H. Dalrymple-Hamilton of H.M.S. Rodney is not a whit dismayed because all his battery of big guns are mounted forward, leaving him no alternative but to face the foe.

That's what he did last month in the hare-and-hound chase over a wide expanse of Atlantic which ended with the sinking of Germany's new warship Bismarck, an engagement which he described in detail for the Associated Press.

The Rodney, about 16 years old, is one of the "Washington Treaty" ships, and otherwise might have been 100 feet longer and carry an extra battery, but the captain brushed that apparent shortcoming aside.

NEARLY ESCAPED

The Bismarck, he disclosed, had all but run a gauntlet of about a dozen British warships after the sinking of the Hood, and probably would have escaped but for a well-placed aerial torpedo dropped by a plane from the new aircraft carrier Victorious. This slowed the Bismarck to 21 knots and apparently injured her rudder, he said, enabling pursuing craft to overtake her before reaching port, probably in France.

On the night of May 25, he related, the Bismarck passed unobserved about 40 miles astern of the Rodney, but next day was located from the air. Then a closing-in manoeuvre began, with two bombing attacks from the Ark Royal's planes and finally a post-ponement of a decision for one night, to await daylight. The German ship by then was virtually surrounded by five destroyers and there was no chance of her again slipping away.

H.M.S. King George V opened the engagement, Capt. Dalrymple-Hamilton continued, and the Rodney soon joined in with several salvos, with the Bismarck replying.

"She was steering straight toward us and made no attempt to evade us," he related, adding, "she appeared not in full control."

"We were on a closing course and got a cross-fire at her at right angles. She undoubtedly got a terrible hammering and her fire was rapidly reduced. In 25 minutes her firing stopped except from one turret, which continued to fire about a quarter of an hour."

"After the Bismarck had ceased to fire, we could see fires on board and it was a question of how fast we could sink her. There was danger to us of submarine attack or attack by planes from Brest."

Important defence orders aggregating $500,000,000 have been delayed by the walkout of the 1,200 A.F.L. machinists, and of 600 affiliated with the Congress of Industrial Organizations.

Wages were one of the big issues in the strike. The machinists, who had been getting $1 an hour and double time for overtime, struck for $1.15 and continuation of the double overtime. The master contract provides for $1.12 and time and a half for extra hours.

Capt. Dalrymple-Hamilton said "it wasn't much fun" administering the coup de grace, but explained the commander in chief had ordered the Bismarck sunk by torpedoes. He said he believed eight or nine torpedoes struck the German ship before she sank. He expressed the opinion the Bismarck's fire control system was disrupted early in the battle.

He explained that the danger of enemy planes and submarines made it expedient for the Rodney to leave the scene without attempting rescue work, which was left to the smaller British craft.

The captain has a high regard for the value of aircraft in modern warfare at sea.

"We never would have caught the Bismarck without torpedo bombers," he conceded, adding that warships must have air support if they are to approach an enemy shore close to enemy airports.

Capt. Dalrymple-Hamilton estimated the Bismarck's tonnage at considerably more than the Rodney's and said she might have carried as many as 2,000 men, only about 100 of whom were saved. He said he placed little credence in statements by some of the prisoners the Bismarck had a "self-sealing" double bottom.

U.S. Firm Will Work On British Air Base

WASHINGTON (AP)—Word came from British sources here an American firm, the Merritt-Chapman and Scott Corporation of New York, would soon start doing construction work in the British Isles, presumably on naval or air base installations. It was believed likely the firm would dispatch American technicians across the Atlantic by air to handle the job.

The contract is strictly between the British government and the American firm, British officials said, and is not a part of the Lease-Lend program.

Sailor Just Lucky

CAPTOWIN (CP)—A 32-year-old leading stoker in the Royal Navy, now visiting Capetown, has this record: When the submarine Thetis sank in 1939 he was one of four survivors; he escaped from a ship torpedoed last year in the Atlantic; last month, aboard a cruiser dive-bombed for 13 hours during the battle for Crete, he escaped again.

Operation Caused Death

VANCOUVER (CP)—The coroner's jury which investigated the death last Friday of Mrs. Theresa Ziegler, found last night that she "came to her death from the effects of an illegal operation performed by a person or persons unknown."

MACHINISTS RETURN TO SHIPYARD WORK

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Union officials announced early today striking American Federation of Labor machinists had voted unanimously to return to work in San Francisco shipyards.

They said the 1,200 machinists who struck May 10 would return to their jobs in all the shipyards Monday, resuming work on millions of dollars in defence contracts.

Important defence orders aggregating $500,000,000 have been delayed by the walkout of the 1,200 A.F.L. machinists, and of 600 affiliated with the Congress of Industrial Organizations.

AIR HEROES FLY BRITISH FIGHTERS

LONDON (AP)—When warship Spitfires and Hurricanes tum across the English Channel these sultry summer days, screening bombers on sweeps of the invasion coast, the heroes of last autumn's battle of Britain fly at the stinging end of the fighter formations.

Bader, Kent, Malan, Park, Tuck. These are the names of aces who are leading the junior pilots. Veterans of such daylong battles as that of last September 15 when at least 185 Nazi planes were the prey of R.A.F. marksmanship, they know the cunning in the German bag of aerial tricks.

Squad-Ldr. Douglas Bader, legless former leader of the all-Canadian fighter squadron in the R.A.F., is one of the spearheads of the British fighter convoys.

In a recent crash both his metal legs were badly bent. He waited until they were straightened in a vise and took off immediately in another plane.

Squad-Ldr. John Alexander Kent, slender Canadian holder of the D.F.C., from Winnipeg, is a "born leader," according to his citation for exceptional skill in battle.

Wing-Comdr. Adolph G. Malan is another fighter pilot at the head of the attack which is daily changing the Battle of Britain into the battle from Britain. His leadership is officially described as "brilliant." Born in South Africa, he is a former seaman.

Squad-Ldr. J. H. Mungo Park and Squad-Ldr. Roland Tuck are two younger British aces.

F. C. Millen Retires, Chesley Promoted

MONTREAL — Announcement of the retirement, June 30, of F. C. Millen, assistant treasurer, Canadian Pacific Railway, Montreal, after more than 50 years service was made today by L. D. Unwin, vice-president and treasurer. Mr. Millen's duties will be taken over by A. E. H. Chesley, while T. H. Ruffitt, assistant local treasurer, Winnipeg, will be promoted to the position of assistant treasurer, Montreal, succeeding Chesley.

Mr. Unwin presented a radio and set of pipes to Mr. Millen and expressed best wishes on behalf of his fellow officers in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver.

Mr. Millen's service dates back to June 2, 1890, when he joined the company as clerk in the accounting department at Montreal.

Mr. Chesley has been assistant treasurer at Montreal since 1930. Previous to that he worked with the Dominion Atlantic Railway, serving in 1894 as agent at Clementsport and Brazil Lake and later as clerk in the accounting department at Kentville. In 1896 he transferred to Windsor, N.S.

Mr. Moffitt joined the company in September, 1900, as clerk in the auditor of passenger receipts office at Montreal.

Java Is World's Most Thickly Settled Large Island

The Dutch East Indies contain just about one-fourth as much land as the United States. From the edge of the Indian Ocean they extend far into the Pacific. If the islands could be picked up and carried over to North America, they would stretch from the Pacific coast to the Atlantic coast. When I say that, I am supposing they would be kept the same distance apart.

A scene in the Dutch East Indies

Of the Dutch East Indies, the one with most people is Java. It has twice as many people as all the rest put together. The population is above 40,000,000, and it is one of the most thickly-settled parts of the world. Great Britain and Hondo are the only islands in the world with more people, and they do not have very many more.

Great Britain has a greater area than Java, and does not have so many persons to the square mile. The same is true of Hondo, main part of Japan. Java has more persons to the square mile than any other large island.

Rice is the main crop of Java. It grows almost everywhere, on hillsides and in valleys. Canals and trenches have been cut to supply the hillside rice fields with the water they need. Little ridges of packed-down mud make dams which keep the water from running away.

The soil of Java is extremely rich. Not only is it good for growing rice but also for coffee, tea, spice plants, potatoes and corn.

When we think of Java as a "Dutch colony," we might picture it as filled with settlers from Holland. That is far from the case. Ninety-five out of 100 of the people are native "Javanese." They are classed in the Malay race and have brownish, or yellow-brown, skins. Java is noted for the many volcanoes located there. Most of these are on the western side of the island. There are 45 of them, and some have been active in modern times. The cones are from half a mile to two miles high.

One Java volcano blew up in 1886, and brought death to close to 10,000 persons. Another volcano erupted in 1901 and threw ashes to a distance of 250 miles. The largest city in the Dutch East Indies is in Java. It is named Batavia, and has a population of about 500,000.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—Recently a gambler's wife asked you for advice. Since my problem has been the same—that of having a husband come home empty-handed pay day after pay day, with bills unpaid and no food or clothing for myself and children—I would like to pass on to this desperate gambler's wife my solution.

My husband, too, would be very contrite and ashamed and promise not to do it again. However, the next week it was the same thing, so I decided to meet him every pay day at his office entrance and bring him home. Most of the time he is very good-natured about it. In fact, when I have been late he has waited for me. Once or twice a year I trust him to bring the money home, but it always fails and he is anxious and willing for me to meet him again.

Gambling seems to be a disease that cannot be cured. Wives have to lend a helping hand, and since they and the husbands themselves profit so much from this sympathetic attitude, it is well worth trying.

Answer: One of the great difficulties about curing a gambler of his vice is that he doesn't want to be cured. He is always firmly convinced that he can't lose this time and that the roll of the dice or the turn of a card will bring him a fortune, and he is furious at any attempt that his wife or any one else makes to save him from himself. However, Mrs. A.B.C.'s remedy is worth trying.

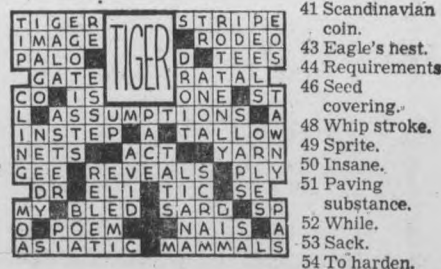

DOROTHY DIX.
